Modern Irish Poetry:

Modern Irish Poetry Patrick Crotty, 1995 This is a collection of over 250 poems which represent the best Irish poetry since Yeats Short biographical critical essays on each poet and an introduction makes this a useful companion for anyone wanting to experience contemporary Irish poetry

Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Seán Riordáin to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet Mairéad Ní Dire In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Ní Dire In This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell's concept of the zig zag movement of a country's culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language

An Anthology of Modern Irish Poetry Wes Davis, 2010 Never before has there been a single volume anthology of modern Irish poetry so significant and groundbreaking as An Anthology of Modern Irish Poetry Collected here is a comprehensive representation of Irish poetic achievement in the twentieth and twenty first centuries from poets such as Austin Clarke and Samuel Beckett who were writing while Yeats and Joyce were still living to those who came of age in the turbulent 60s as sectarian violence escalated including Seamus Heaney and Michael Longley to a new generation of Irish writers represented by such diverse interesting voices as David Wheatley born 1970 and Sinéad Morrissey born 1972 Scholar and editor Wes Davis has chosen work by more than fifty leading modern and contemporary Irish poets Each poet is represented by a generous number of poems there are nearly 800 poems in the anthology The editor's selection includes work by world renowned poets including a couple of Nobel Prize winners as well as work by poets whose careers may be less well known to the general public by poets writing in English and by several working in the Irish language Gaelic selections appear in translation Accompanying the selections are a general introduction that provides a historical overview informative short essays on each poet and helpful notes all prepared by the editor

Limits and Languages in Contemporary Irish Women's Poetry Daniela Theinová, 2020-10-18 Limits and Languages in Contemporary Irish Women's Poetry examines the transactions between the two main languages of Irish literature English and Irish and their formative role in contemporary poetry by Irish women Daniela Theinová explores the works of well known poets such as Eavan Boland Eilís Ní Chuiléain in Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill Biddy Jenkinson and Medbh McGuckian combining for the first time a critical analysis of the language issue with a focus on the historical marginality of women in the Irish literary tradition Acutely alert to the textures of individual poems even as she reads these against broader critical theoretical horizons Theinová engages directly with texts in both Irish and English By highlighting these writers' uneasy poetic and linguistic identity and by introducing into this wider context some more recent poets including Vona Groarke Caitríona O'Reilly Sinéad Morrissey Ailbhe Darcy and Aifric Mac Aodha this book proposes a fundamental critical reconsideration of major late twentieth century Irish women poets and by extension the nation's canon

Modern Irish Poetry. Tradition and Continuity from Yeats to Heaney. (1. Paperback Printing. With a New Epilogue.) Robert F. Garratt, 1989 Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Canon Kenneth Keating, 2017-03-27 This book makes an important intervention into debates about influence and contemporary Irish poetry Supported throughout by incisive reflections upon allusion word choice and formal structure Keating brings to the discussion a range of new and lesser known voices which decisively complicate and illuminate its pronounced concerns with inheritance history and the Irish poetic canon Steven Matthews Professor of English Literature University of Reading UK and author of Irish Poetry Politics History Negotiation and Yeats As Precursor This book is about the way that contemporary Irish poetry is dominated and shaped by criticism It argues that critical practices tend to construct reductive singular and static understandings of poetic texts identities careers and maps of the development of modern Irish poetry This study challenges the attempt present within such criticism to arrest stabilize and diffuse the threat multiple alternative histories and understandings of texts would pose to the formation of any singular pyramidal canon Offered here are detailed close readings of the recent work of some of the most established and high profile Irish poets such as Paul Muldoon and Medbh McGuckian along with emerging poets to foreground an alternative critical methodology which undermines the traditional canonical pursuit of singular meaning and definition through embracing the troubling indeterminacy and multiplicity to be found within contemporary Irish poetry

Contemporary Irish Poetry, New and Revised Edition Anthony Bradley, 1988-11-15 The poems featured in this anthology are quintessentially human documents informed by humor compassion and a joyful and visionary element an impulse to praise what is really life and to protect it from the naysayers as well as by a salutary realism and irony This revised edition features the work of Tom Paulin Medbh McGuckian Paul Durcan Aidan Carl Mathews Anne Hartigan Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and others who were not included in the first edition Moreover the selections from those poets featured in the first edition have in many cases been extensively changed and updated In total more than half the poems published in this second edition did not appear in the first

"The Given Note" Seán Crosson, 2021-02-03 The oldest records indicate that the performance of poetry in Gaelic Ireland was normally accompanied by music providing a point of continuity with past tradition while bolstering a sense of community in the present Music would also offer particularly for poets writing in English from the eighteenth century onwards a perceived authenticity a connection with an older tradition perceived as being untarnished by linguistic and cultural division While providing an innovative analysis of theoretical work in music and literary studies this book examines how traditional Irish music including the related song tradition primarily in Irish has influenced and is apparent in the work of Irish poets While looking generally at where this influence is evident historically and in contemporary Irish poetry this work focuses primarily on the work of six poets three who write in English and three who write primarily in the Irish language Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney Ciaran Carson Gearóid Mac Lochlainn Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and Cathal Searcaigh

areas which follow covering the period from the 1910s through to the 21st century allow scope for coverage of key poetic voices in Ireland in their historical and political context From the experimentalism of Beckett MacGreevy and others of the modernist generation to the refashioning of Yeats's Ireland on the part of poets such as MacNeice Kavanagh and Clarke mid century through to the controversially titled post 1969 Northern Renaissance of poetry this volume will provide extensive coverage of the key movements of the modern period The Handbook covers the work of among others Paul Durcan Thomas Kinsella Brendan Kennelly Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley Medbh McGuckian and Ciaran Carson The thematic sections interspersed throughout chapters on women's poetry religion translation painting music stylistics allow for comparative studies of poets north and south across the century Central to the guiding spirit of this project is the Handbook's consideration of poetic forms and a number of essays explore the generic diversity of poetry in Ireland its various manipulations reinventions and sometimes repudiations of traditional forms The last essays in the book examine the work of a new generation of poets from Ireland concentrating on work published in the last two decades by Justin Quinn Leontia Flynn Sinead Morrissey David Wheatley Vona Groarke and others
