Writing Bodies, Moving Cities J. E. Henneberg, 2013-04-04 This book explores the dialogue between city and self through a series of short texts Analytical argumentative creative and poetic writing styles converge and contrast to imitate the various ways in which a person comes to know a city In many ways cities represent and respond to identity making processes Its geographical map can serve as an allegory for a place in time and a version of selfhood Cities are themselves real and active entities with personalities and traits Like people they have their merits faults habits and quirks The texts of this book attempt to locate the intersection of portraits of cities and portraits of human character     The Moving City Rashmi Sadana, 2021-12-07 The Moving City is a rich and intimate account of urban transformation told through the story of Delhi's Metro a massive infrastructure project that is reshaping the city's social and urban landscapes Ethnographic vignettes introduce the feel and form of the Metro and let readers experience the city scene by scene stop by stop as if they too have come along for the ride Laying bare the radical possibilities and concretized inequalities of the Metro and how people live with and through its built environment this is a story of women and men on the move the nature of Indian aspiration and what it takes morally and materially to sustain urban life Through exquisite prose Rashmi Sadana transports the reader to a city shaped by both its Metro and those who depend on it revealing a perspective on Delhi unlike any other
