Rescuing the Church from Consumerism Mark Clavier,2013-08-01 Rescuing the Church examines how people are initiated into a consumer culture during childhood and thus drawn into pursuing a vocation as consumers by means of various quasi sacramental rites and practices The upshot of this is that the church today is composed primarily of men and women whose lives are situated more within a consumer culture than within a distinctively Christian one In order for the church to free itself the author believes it must reclaim a sacramental identity that is grounded in a narrative tradition and realized in real local worshipping communities like us and believe like us It should be an exciting journey of embodying God's presence and purpose in the world a God of expansion inclusion outreach and reconciliation Saving Church will give you a renewed sense of what's possible permission to do things differently and a restored passion for sharing God's goodness with the world     The Reflective Disciple Roger Walton,2014-07-24 Helps readers to explore the concept of discipleship beginning with the New Testament and through examining snapshots of various patterns of discipleship as well as reflecting on discipleship in our contemporary context and setting     Anglicans and Pentecostals in Dialogue David Hilborn,Simo Frestadius,2023-09-22 This is the first comprehensive book on Anglican and Pentecostal ecumenical relations It introduces both movements with a particular focus on their approaches to ecumenism before exploring sacraments ministry ecclesiology pneumatology and mission with respect to both traditions As well as providing more theological and historical discussion the book also offers personal accounts of local national and international ecumenical engagement by both Anglicans and Pentecostals It is written predominantly although not exclusively from a British perspective Even so as the first major published dialogue between these two global Christian traditions the book will be of value to all interested in Anglicanism Pentecostalism and ecumenism
