photography and film tracing their ever changing dialogue since early modernism Manifestations of the cinematic in photography and of the photographic in cinema have been a springboard for the work of some of the most influential contemporary artists BOOK JACKET Film in the Post-Media Age Ágnes Pethő, 2012-03-15 Ever since the centenary of cinema there have been intense discussions in the field of film studies about the imminent demise of the cinematic medium endless articles championing the spirit of genuine cinephilia have proclaimed the death of classical cinema and mourned the end of an era while new currents in media studies introduced such buzzwords into the discussions as remediation Bolter and Grusin media convergence Jenkins post media aesthetics Manovich or the virtual life of film Rodowick By the turn of the millennium the whole ecosystem of media had been radically altered through processes of hybridization and media convergence Some theorists even claim that now that the term medium has triumphed in the discussions around contemporary art and culture the actual media have already deceased as digitized imagery absorbs all media Moving images have entered the art galleries and new forms of inter art relationships have been forged They have also moved into the streets and our everyday life as a domesticated medium at everybody's reach into new private and public environments and into a fusion of both via the Internet Consequently should we speak of an all pervasive cinematic experience instead of a cinematic medium What really happens to film once its traditional medium has shape shifted into various digital forms and once its traditional locations institutions and usages have been uprooted What do these re locations and re configurations really entail What are the most important new genres in post media moving pictures Is it the web video is it 3D cinema is it the computer game that operates with moving image narratives is it the new vernacular database the DVD or the good old television adjusted to all these new forms How does theatrical cinema itself adapt to or reflect on these new image forms and technologies How can we interpret the convergence of older cinematic forms with an emerging digital aesthetics traceable in typical post media hosts of moving images These are only some of the major questions that the theoretical investigation and in depth analyses in this volume try to answer in an attempt at exploring not the disappearance of cinema but the blooming post media life of film Moving Picture World and View Photographer, 1915 Static Films and Moving Pictures Jennifer Valcke, 2013 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2008 in the subject Art Photography and Film grade cum laude University of Edinburgh language English abstract Photomontage has more to do with film than with any other art form they have in common the technique of montage Sergei Tretyakov By considering that photomontage and film use the technique of cutting and gluing as dominant artistic device and that montage a technique unifying art and technology for the first time emerged as a dominant artistic feature of the avant garde this thesis will explore the ideological and perceptual implications of its advent in avant garde art and film The technological advances of the beginning of the twentieth century and particularly the advent of photography allowed avant garde artists to break free from traditional concepts of artistic production they dispensed with the old criteria of uniqueness originality handicraft and personal style At a time when many avant garde artists abruptly ceased to paint photomontage emerged as the privileged locus for a caesura with traditional art forms Photomontage envisioned film aesthetics insofar as it combines and juxtaposes images of various perspectival planes and angles Raoul Hausmann described his early photomontages as motionless moving pictures A corresponding observation can be made on the use of montage in cinema a technique which crucially underpins the illusion of movement created through the succession of photographic stills The present thesis will investigate photomontage and film in order to examine the effect technological reproduction played in revolutionising artistic production perception and ideology where the technique and philosophy of montage was key Framing Pictures Steven Jacobs,2012-08-27 Steven Jacobs book provides a unique critical intervention into a relatively new area of scholarship the multidisciplinary topic of film and the visual arts

The Film Renter and Moving Picture News ,1926 Wid's Year Book ,1922 The soul of the moving picture Walter Julius Bloem,2025-03-02 In The Soul of the Moving Picture Walter Julius Bloem presents a profound exploration of cinema as an art form that transcends mere entertainment delving into its psychological and philosophical dimensions With a unique literary style that melds lyrical prose and analytical rigor Bloem examines film as a reflection of the human experience probing its ability to evoke deep emotional responses Written during the early 20th century a formative period for cinema the book engages with contemporaneous theories of aesthetics and semiotics situating film within broader cultural narratives and examining its transformative potential in society Walter Julius Bloem was not only a novelist and playwright but also a notable film critic which bestowed his writing with an informed perspective on the emerging cinematic landscape His introspective nature and connection to the arts informed his fascination with the interplay between visual media and human sentiment Bloem s background in literature combined with his engagement with the avant garde movements of his time fostered a profound appreciation for the depths of emotion that film can provoke For those intrigued by the intersection of art psychology and film The Soul of the Moving Picture is an essential read Bloem s insightful critique provides a pioneering framework for understanding not only the aesthetics of cinema but also its broader implications for the human condition making it a timeless resource for film scholars and enthusiasts alike Canadian Moving Picture Digest ,1926

Surface Giuliana Bruno,2014-06-09 What is the place of materiality the expression or condition of physical substance in our visual age of rapidly changing materials and media How is it fashioned in the arts or manifested in virtual forms In Surface cultural critic and theorist Giuliana Bruno deftly explores these questions seeking to understand materiality in the contemporary world Arguing that materiality is not a question of the materials themselves but rather the substance of material relations Bruno investigates the space of those relations examining how they appear on the surface of different media on film and video screens in gallery installations or on the skins of buildings and people The object of visual studies she contends goes well beyond the image and engages the surface as a place of contact between people and art objects As Bruno threads through these surface encounters she unveils the fabrics of the visual the textural qualities of works of art whether manifested on canvas wall or screen Illuminating the modern surface condition she notes how fa ades are becoming virtual screens and the art of projection is reinvented on gallery walls She traverses the light spaces of artists Robert Irwin James Turrell Tacita Dean and Anthony McCall touches on the textured surfaces of Isaac Julien s and Wong Kar wai s filmic screens and travels across the surface materiality in the architectural practices of Diller Scofidio Renfro and Herzog de Meuron to the art of Doris Salcedo and Rachel Whiteread where the surface tension of media becomes concrete In performing these critical operations on the surface she articulates it as a site in which different forms of mediation memory and transformation can take place Surveying object relations across art architecture fashion design film and new media

Surface is a magisterial account of contemporary visual culture Moving Picture Age ,1921 A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas,2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography s wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agn s Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatari with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book

Francophone Belgian Cinema Jamie Steele,2018-12-19 Francophone Belgian Cinema offers an original critical analysis of filmmaking in an oft neglected national and regional cinema The book draws key distinctions between the local national small national regional and transnational frameworks in both representational and industrial terms Alongside the Dardenne brothers this book considers four promising Francophone Belgian filmmakers who have received limited critical attention in academic publications on contemporary European cinema Joachim Lafosse Olivier Masset Depasse Lucas Belvaux and Bouli Lanners Exploring these filmmakers themes of post industrialism paternalism the fractured nuclear family and spatial dynamics as well as their work in the more commercial road movie and polar genres Jamie Steele analyses their stylistic continuities and filiation This is complemented by an analysis of how the industrial aspects of film production distribution and exhibition contribute to the creation of both a regional and transnational cinema     A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15 The first transnational history of photography's accommodation in the art museum Photography was long regarded as a middle brow art by the art institution Yet at the turn of the millennium it became the hot global art of our time In this book part institutional history part account of shifting photographic theories and practices Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography's accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA Tate the Guggenheim the V A and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site
