plays but also as a plot element in literary works or as a point of friction in literary circles As the growth of digital humanities increases access to print sources and as opera scholars move away from a focus on operas as isolated works this study points the way forward to a richer understanding of the intersections between opera and print culture      National Union Catalog,1983      Music News ,1928      Franz Liszt Michael Saffle,2013-02-01 Franz Liszt A Research and Information Guide is an annotated bibliography concerning both the nature of primary sources related to the composer and the scope and significance of the secondary sources which deal with him his compositions and his influence as a composer and performer The second edition includes research published since the publication of the first edition and provide electronic resources Franz Liszt was born on 22 October 1811 at Raiding today located in Austria s Burgenland He received his first piano lessons from his father Adam Liszt an employee of the celebrated Eszterh zy family Young Franz was quickly acclaimed a prodigy and in 1820 a group of Hungarian magnates offered to underwrite his musical education Shortly thereafter the Liszts moved to Vienna where Franz studied piano and composition with Carl Czerny and Anton Salieri Performances there earned Liszt local fame even Beethoven expressed interest in him      Self-quotation in Schubert Scott Messing,2020 Examines the history of musical self quotation and reveals and explores a previously unidentified case of Schubert quoting one of his own songs in a major instrumental work      Among Our Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1913
