Mr Fluxus A Collective Portrait Of George Maciunas:

Mr. Fluxus Emmett Williams, Ann Noël, 1997 Mr. Fluxus Emmett Williams, Ay-o, 1998 George Maciunas was the founder and leader of a radical and experimental art movement of the 1960s known as Fluxus which rejected traditional high art to practice an extraordinary form of anti art Maciunas attempted to rule Fluxus in totalitarian fashion yet he laughed at himself and called forth laughter in others This biography reveals the story of an unorthodox contradictory and elusive genius 107 illustrations Fluxus Administration Colby Chamberlain, 2024-07-09 George Maciunas is typically associated with the famous art collective Fluxus of which he is often thought to have been the leader In this book critic and art historian Colby Chamberlain wants us to question two things first the idea that Fluxus was a group in any conventional sense and second that Maciunas was its leader Instead Chamberlain shows us how Maciunas used the paper materials of bureaucracy in his art cards certificates charts files and plans among others to subvert his own status as a figurehead of this collective and even as a biographical entity Each of the book's chapters situates Maciunas's artistic practice in relation to a different domain education communication production housing and health We learn about his use of the postal service to make Fluxus into an international network his manipulation of US copyright law to pursue a Soviet ideal of collective authorship his intervention in Manhattan's zoning restrictions as founder and manager of the Fluxhouse artists' lofts in SoHo and his performances protesting against normative ideals of health and family focusing on his own ultimately failed medical self management Fluxus Administration is not a biography but it does delve more deeply than any other book into Maciunas's life and work showing the lengths to which the artist himself went to disrupt any easy account of himself Punk Crisis Raymond A. Patton, 2018-09-04 Punk Crisis examines how transnational punk movements challenged the global order of the Cold War to usher in a new era of global neoliberalism Everything Is Now J Hoberman, 2025-05-27 A groundbreaking cultural history of 1960s New York from the legendary writer on art and film Like Paris in the 1920s New York City in the 1960s was a cauldron of avant garde ferment and artistic innovation Boundaries were transgressed and new forms created Drawing on interviews memoirs and the alternative press Everything Is Now chronicles this collective drama as it was played out in coffeehouses bars lofts storefront theaters and ultimately the streets The principals here are penniless filmmakers jazz musicians and performing poets as well as less classifiable artists Most were outsiders at the time They include Amiri Baraka Bob Dylan Allen Ginsberg Yayoi Kusama Yoko Ono Nam June Paik Carolee Schneemann Jack Smith Andy Warhol and many more Some were associated with specific movements Avant Rock Destruction Art Fluxus Free Jazz Guerrilla Theater Happenings Mimeographed Zines Pop Art Protest Folk Ridiculous Theater Stand Up Poetry Underground Comix and Underground Movies But there were also movements of one Their art rooted in the detritus and excitement of urban life was taboo breaking and confrontational As J Hoberman shows in this riveting history these subcultures coalesced into a counterculture that changed the city the country and the world Four Musical Minimalists Keith Potter, 2002-04-25

Offers the most detailed account yet of the early works of these four minimalist composers Fluxus Experience Hannah Higgins, 2002-12-12 Hannah Higgins explores the influential art movement Fluxus Daring disparate and contentious Fluxus artists worked with minimal and prosaic materials now familiar in post World War II art Higgins describes the experience of Fluxus for viewers as affirming transactions between the self and the world Fluxus Forms Natilee Harren, 2020-03-20 PURGE the world of dead art imitation artificial art Promote living art anti art promote NON ART REALITY to be grasped by all peoples writes artist George Maciunas in his Fluxus manifesto of 1963 Reacting against an elitist art world enthralled by modernist aesthetics Fluxus encouraged playfulness chance irreverence and viewer participation The diverse collective including George Brecht Robert Filliou Dick Higgins Alison Knowles George Maciunas Yoko Ono Nam June Paik Benjamin Patterson Takako Saito Mieko Shiomi Ben Vautier and Robert Watts embraced humble objects and everyday gestures as critical means of finding freedom and excitement beyond traditional forms of art making While today the Fluxus collective is recognized for its radical neo avant garde works of performance publishing and relational art and its experimental interdisciplinary approach it was not taken seriously in its own time With Fluxus Forms Natilee Harren captures the magnetic energy of Fluxus activities and collaborations that emerged at the intersections of art music performance and literature The book offers insight into the nature of art in the 1960s as it traces the international development of the collective s unique intermedia works including event scores and Fluxbox multiples that irreversibly expanded the boundaries of contemporary art Res: Anthropology and Aesthetics, 48: Autumn 2005 Francesco Pellizzi, 2005-12-15 Res 48 includes the editorial Between Creation and Destruction by Finbarr Barry Flood and Zo Sara Strother People Have Three Eyes by Sarah Adams Beyond Monument Lies Empire by Kristina Van Dyke and other papers Res: Anthropology and Aesthetics, 63/64: Spring/Autumn 2013 Francesco Pellizzi, 2014-03-10 RES 63 64 includes Source and trace by Christopher S Wood Timelessness fluidity and Apollo s libation by Milette Gaifman A liquid history Blood and animation in late medieval art by Beate Fricke Guercino s wet drawing by Nicola Suthor The readymade metabolized Fluxus in life by David Joselit and other papers The Delirious Museum Calum Storrie, 2007-10-24 The Delirious Museum is a remarkable illuminating work which presents an original view of the idea of the museum in the twenty first century re imagining the possibilities for museums and their displays and re examining the blurred boundaries between museums and the cities around them On his quest for the Delirious Museum Storrie takes a journey that begins in the Louvre and continues through Paris London Los Angeles and Las Vegas He encounters on his way the museum architecture of John Soane Carlo Scarpa and Daniel Libeskind the exhibitions of El Lissitzky and of Frederick Kiesler and the work of artists as varied as Marcel Duchamp Andy Warhol Marcel Broodthaers Sophie Calle and Mark Dion Fluxus Natasha Lushetich, 2014-06-01 Focusing on the most definition resistant art movement in history and departing from its two chief characteristics intermediality and interactivity this book develops an original theory of practice the experiential philosophy of non duality which is the philosophy of dynamic co

constitutivity This is done by tracing the performativity of intermedial works works that fall conceptually between the art and the life media such as Bengt af Klintbergs s event score Eat an orange as if it were an apple in five key areas of human experience language temporality the sensorium social rites and rituals and systems of economic exchange The main argument woven with the aid of the Derridian blind tactics the Gramscian production of social life and the Zen derived interexpression of Kitaro Nishida is that the practical philosophy of co constitutivity arises from the logic of the intermedium In pursuing this argument the book does three things 1 it theorises an oeuvre that has remained under theorised due to its fundamentally non discursive nature and in doing so reinstates Fluxus as an influential cultural rather than a merely artistic paradigm 2 it serves as a companion to thinking by doing since most Fluxus intermedia are ready made and as such readily available in the everyday environment and 3 it establishes the counter hegemonic logic of fluxing while tracing its legacy in contemporary practices as diverse as the culture jamming activism of The Yes Men the paradoxical performance work of Song Dong and the pervasive game worlds of Blast Theory Natasha Lushetich is an artist researcher and Lecturer in Performance at the University of Exeter UK Her specialist areas include intermedia live art performance and philosophy and questions of identity and ideology Her recent writings have appeared in Babilonia Performance Research TDR Theatre Journal Total Art Journal as well as in a number of edited collections

Poetry in General Keegan Cook Finberg,2025-11-04 In the second half of the twentieth century poetry

leapt out of books and became an interdisciplinary public form Poetry entered bureaucratic systems of organization like index card catalogues it pushed the boundaries of privately owned public parks Keegan Cook Finberg argues that poetry became an increasingly capacious force during this period because it could speak directly to the degradation of the social democratic notion of the public Poetry in General explores how poets expanded their practice into the realms of politics work and everyday life from 1960 to the present from the apex of the welfare state to an era of privatization and austerity It considers a compelling array of figures including Yoko Ono George Brecht Frank O Hara Amiri Baraka Bernadette Mayer Eleanor Antin Adrian Piper and M NourbeSe Philip whose works draw on conceptual techniques to transform official documents and spaces Finberg shows how these public texts expose the mechanisms of the neoliberal consensus about work and leisure the state's facilitation of capitalism and enduring racial and gender inequities She also provides politically charged ways to interpret and critique racial capitalism antiabortion legislation and mass debt A new literary and institutional history of postwar poetics this book shows how poetic experiments address the privatization of collective life and rethink the category of the public

Art and Graphic Design Benoit Buquet, 2021-01-01 An innovative exploration of the intersection of graphic design and American art of the 1960s and 1970s This fascinating study of the role that graphic design played in American art of the 1960s and 1970s focuses on the work of George Maciunas Ed Ruscha and Sheila Levrant de Bretteville Examining how each of these artists utilized typography materiality and other graphic design aesthetics Benoit Buquet reveals the importance of graphic design in creating a sense of coherence within the disparate international group of Fluxus artists an elusiveness and resistance to categorization that defined much of Ruscha's brand of Pop Art and an open and participatory visual identity for a range of feminist art practices Rigorous and compelling scholarship and a copious illustration program that presents insightful juxtapositions of objects some of which have never been discussed before combine to shed new light on a period of abundant creativity and cultural transition in American art and the intimate though often overlooked entwined relationship between art and graphic design
