Mr Death Four Stories:

Mr. Death Anne Moody, 1975 Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill We Shall Not Be Moved M. J. O'Brien, 2013-02-15 Winner of the 2014 Lillian Smith Book Award an up close study of a pinnacle moment in the struggle and of those who fought for change Remembering Medgar Evers Minrose Gwin, 2013-02-25 As the first NAACP field secretary for Mississippi Medgar Wiley Evers put his life on the line to investigate racial crimes including Emmett Till s murder and to organize boycotts and voter registration drives On June 12 1963 he was shot in the back by white supremacist Byron De La Beckwith as the civil rights leader unloaded a stack of Jim Crow Must Go T shirts in his own driveway His was the first assassination of a high ranking public figure in the civil rights movement While Evers's death ushered in a decade of political assassinations and ignited a powder keg of racial unrest nationwide his life of service and courage has largely been consigned to the periphery of U S and civil rights history In her compelling study of collective memory and artistic production Remembering Medgar Evers Minrose Gwin engages the powerful body of work that has emerged in response to Evers's life and death fiction poetry memoir drama and songs from James Baldwin Margaret Walker Eudora Welty Lucille Clifton Bob Dylan and Willie Morris among others Gwin examines local news accounts about Evers 1960s gospel and protest music as well as contemporary hip hop the haunting poems of Frank X Walker and contemporary fiction such as The Help and Gwin's own novel The Queen of Palmyra In this study Evers springs to life as a leader of plural singularity who modeled for southern African Americans a new form of cultural identity that both drew from the past and broke from it to quote Gwendolyn Brooks He leaned across tomorrow Fifty years after his untimely death Evers still casts a long shadow In her examination of the body of work he has inspired Gwin probes wide ranging questions about collective memory and art as instruments of social justice Remembered Evers's life's legacy pivots to the future she writes linking us to other human rights struggles both local and global A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication Wisconsin Library Bulletin ,1975 A Study Guide for Anne Moody's "Coming of Age in Mississippi" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study Guide for Anne Moody's Coming of Age in Mississippi excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Nonfiction Classics for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Nonfiction Classics for Students for all of your research needs Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers Yolanda Williams Page,2007-01-30 African American women writers published extensively during the Harlem Renaissance and have been extraordinarily prolific since the 1970s This book surveys the world of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars The Encyclopedia covers established contemporary authors such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor along with a range of neglected and emerging figures Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography a discussion of major works a survey of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Literature students will value this book for its exploration of African American literature while social studies students will appreciate its examination of social issues through literature African American women writers have made an enormous contribution to our culture Many of these authors wrote during the Harlem Renaissance a particularly vital time in African American arts and letters while others have been especially active since the 1970s an era in which works by African American women are adapted into films and are widely read in book clubs Literature by African American women is important for its aesthetic qualities and it also illuminates the social issues which these authors have confronted This book conveniently surveys the lives and works of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 African American women novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars Some of these figures such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor are among the most popular authors writing today while others have been largely neglected or are recently emerging Each entry provides a biography a discussion of major works a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Students and general readers will welcome this guide to the rich achievement of African American women Literature students will value its exploration of the works of these writers while social studies students will appreciate its examination of the social issues these women confront in their works

From Girl to Woman Christy Rishoi, 2012-02-01 From Girl to Woman examines the coming of age narratives of a diverse group of American women writers including Annie Dillard Zora Neale Hurston Maxine Hong Kingston and Mary McCarthy and explores the crucial role of such narratives in the development of American feminism Women have long known that identity is complex and contradictory but in the twentieth century their coming of age narratives finally voice this knowledge Addressing a variety of themes awakening sexuality the body's metamorphosis in puberty consciousness of difference from males and the socialization into feminine gender roles these narratives reject the heroine's narrative ending in romance allowing American women writers to create alternative subjectivities by rejecting the notion that identity is ever fixed While activists have succeeded in winning legal battles that have changed the legal status of women these narratives perform the cultural work of exposing the painful contradictions faced by women as they come of age Women's Rights in the United States Tiffany K. Wayne, 2014-12-09 A comprehensive encyclopedia tracing the history of the women's rights movement in the United States from the American Revolution to the present day Few realize that the origin of the discussion on women's rights emerged out of the anti slavery movement of the 19th century and that suffragists were active in the peace and labor movements long after the right to vote was granted Thus began the confluence of activism in our country where the rights of women both followed and led the social and political discourse in America Through 4 volumes and more than 800 entries editor Tiffany K Wayne with advising editor Lois Banner examine the issues people and events of women's activism from the early period of American history to the present time This comprehensive reference not only traces the historical evolution of the movement but also covers current issues affecting women such as reproductive freedom political participation pay equity violence against women and gay civil rights Bi-centennial history of Albany. History of the county of Albany, N. Y., from 1609 to 1886. With portraits, biographies and illustrations. [By] Howell [and] Tenney. Assisted by local writers George Rogers Howell, 1886-01-01 The Builder ,1866 Top of the News ,1975 Notes and Queries ,1853 The Biographical Cyclopædia and Portrait Gallery with an Historical Sketch of the State of Ohio ... ,1891 Architect and Engineer ,1919 Historic Homes and Institutions and Genealogical and Personal Memoirs of Berkshire County, Massachusetts Rollin Hillyer Cooke, 1906
