PHILOSOPHIC CLASSICS, Volume II—From Kant to Hegel
 To look upon with astonishment from Francis Bacon, who advised in the 17th century that "wisdom is not to be sought in the schools, but in the marketplace." This volume contains the great works of Kant, Hegel, and Schopenhauer, among others. These are the great works of the 18th and 19th centuries, and they are the great works of the 18th and 19th centuries. The volume contains a new introduction to philosophy, and a new introduction to the great works of the 18th and 19th centuries.

The volume contains the works of Kant's Critique of Pure Reason, 1781, and Practical Reason, 1785, and his Logic, 1807, and his Metaphysics, 1781. 288 pages. $12.95.

FOUNDATIONS OF PHILOSOPHY SERIES

Edited by EDGORTH BRIDGLEY, Tutor, Trinity College, and MICHAEL C. BRIDGLEY, of Trinity College.

The series also approaches philosophy for the first time, with a view to the problems philosophy is engaged with and what solutions have been proposed. For this purpose it is necessary to have what the philosopher must provide: a clear but highly readable introduction to the study of philosophy. The series will serve as a philosophy text for an upper-level course.

editor Forrest E Baird has continued to follow the same criteria established by the late Walter Kaufmann when the Philosophic Classics series was first established 1 to use complete works or where more appropriate complete sections of works 2 in clear translations 3 of texts central to the thinker's philosophy or widely accepted as part of the canon To make the works more accessible to students most footnotes treating textual matters variant readings etc have been omitted and important Greek words have been transliterated and put in angle brackets In addition each thinker is introduced by a brief essay composed of three sections 1 biographical a glimpse of the life 2 philosophical a r sum of the philosopher's thought and 3 bibliographical suggestions for further reading New to this seventh edition Changes in translations New translations of Plato's Apology and Phaedo and Aristotle's Nichomachean Ethics and Politics from the acclaimed Focus Philosophical Library Series New translations of Plato's Euthyphro and Crito New translations of Epicurus's Letter to Herodotus Letter to Menoeceus and Principal Doctrines New translation of the Parmenides fragments Additional material Gorgias's model oration Encomium on Helen which gives a defense of Helen of Troy A selection from Plato's Gorgias on nature versus convention or law Additional material from the opening of Plato's Symposium to contextualize the dialogue Additional material from Plato's Republic Book IX on the tri partite soul Additional material from Aristotle's Metaphysics Book IV 1 4 7 on the nature of being and the so called three rules of thought A brief selection from Porphyry's Life of Plotinus giving a sense of the person Updated and reorganized bibliographies To allow for all these changes a section of Book V from Plato's Republic has been dropped Those who use this first volume in a one term course in ancient philosophy will find more material here than can easily fit a normal semester But this embarrassment of riches gives teachers some choice and for those who offer the same course year after year an opportunity to change the menu Philosophic Classics, Volume IV
