Hong Kong locates Hong Kong in the contemporary globalizing world Hong Kong as the authors argue is an archetypal place sitting at the intersection of East and West It is also a major center for global capital flows and world trade Moreover in recent years the island s global cultural power has become increasingly evident as Hong Kong popular culture has spread to the West via a booming film industry While looking at issues of postcoloniality transnationalism and economic globalization Wong and McDonogh focus on the new cultures and social formations of contemporary Hong Kong as well as the transformation of the physical city itself They also trace the new interconnections economic demographic social and cultural between Hong Kong and other parts of the worldthat have benn fostered by globalization Books in this series look at how nations and regions across the world are navigating the tumultuous currents of globalization Concise descriptive interdisciplinary and theoretically informed they serve as ideal introductions to the peoples and places of our increasingly globalized world Idoru William Gibson,2003-01-07 The best novel William Gibson has ever written about the world we re out Rei Toei is the idoru the beautiful entirely virtual media star adored by all Japan Rez has declared that he will marry her

This is the rumor that has brought Chia to Tokyo True or not the idoru and the powerful interests surrounding her are enough to put all their lives in danger Capture Japan Marco Bohr,2022-12-01 Capture Japan investigates the formation of visual tropes and how these have contributed to perceptions of Japan in the global imagination The book proposes that images are not incidental in the formation of such perceptions but central to notions about identity history and memory From a tentative western ally in 1952 to a soft power superpower with a huge global influence in the 21st century the book locates questions about Japan in the global imagination to the country's transforming geopolitical position By adopting an interdisciplinary approach with a multiplicity of perspectives from around the world Capture Japan goes beyond binarisms to uncover how images can also produce discourses that challenge subvert or even contradict each other The word capture in the title of the book recognises both the deeply problematic role that images have played in relation to colonialism as well as the potential dominance that visual spectacles can wield in a contemporary context Diverse essays from a wide range of perspectives investigate the institutional framework that has allowed certain types of images of Japan to be promoted while others have been suppressed In doing so the book points to a vast network of images that have shaped the perception of Japan both from within and from outside revealing how these images are inextricably linked to wider ideological political cultural or economic agendas *SPSJ ... Disordered Attention Claire Bishop, 2024-06-11 How technology and the politics of attention changed the way we look at art The ways we encounter contemporary art and performance has changed How are we expected to engage with today's diverse practice Is the old model of close looking still the ideal or has it given way to browsing skimming and sampling Across four provocative and insightful essays art historian and critic Claire Bishop identifies trends in contemporary practice Charting a critical path through the last three decades Bishop pinpoints how spectatorship and visual literacy are evolving under the pressures of digital technology She explores how researched based exhibitions have proliferated turning the artist into an investigator or archivist with mixed results Spatial performance can now involve the artist dancers or even the audience as participants often framed with Instagram in mind The political event is not longer activated without an understanding of the media that will record and distribute it The proliferation of works that use modernist architecture is noticeable but has this become a shorthand for something else Disordered Attention is a vital survey of 21st century art from one of the leading art thinkers of our times Polymer Preprints, Japan, 1991 Index of Patents Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1993 Tsunami Edward Bryant, 2014-06-11 It is a comprehensive and well illustrated textbook on all aspects of tsunami I don't think there is any other book on the topic published As one bookseller said after the Indian Ocean tsunami event I would have just filled my front window with copies and they would have walked out the store This statement was just as relevant after the Japanese tsunami of 2011 and will be as relevant when the next large tsunami event happens sooner rather than later The book can be used by a student or layperson to gain encyclopedic knowledge about tsunami Haikyo Mania Michael Jay Miller, 2007 FotoFest 90 Fotofest Inc Houston, 1990 Aesthetics in Present Future Brunella Antomarini, Adam Berg, 2013-06-10 Aesthetics in Present Future The Arts and the Technological Horizon is a collection of essays by scholars and a few artists who focus on the issue of how arts either change when conveyed by new media such as the web 3D printers and videos or are simply diffused by them The contributors analyses describe how both virtual production and virtual communication change our attitudes toward what we call the arts The scope of the topics ranges from photography to cinema and painting from theater to avant garde art and Net art and from construction of robots to simulation of brain functions The result is an astonishing range of new possibilities and risks for the arts and new perspectives regarding our knowledge of the world

Cyberpunk in a Transnational Context Takayuki Tatsumi, 2019-08-20 Mike Mosher's Some Aspects of Californian Cyberpunk vividly reminds us of the influence of West Coast counterculture on cyberpunks with special emphasis on 1960s theoretical gurus such as Timothy Leary and Marshall McLuhan who explored the frontiers of inner space as well as the global village Frenchy Lunning's Cyberpunk Redux D rives in the Rich Sight of Post Anthropocentric Visuality examines how the heritage of Ridley Scott's techno noir film Blade Runner 1982 that preceded Gibson's Neuromancer 1984 keeps revolutionizing the art of visuality even in the age of the Anthropocene If you read Lunning's essay along with Lidia Meras's European Cyberpunk Cinema which closely analyzes major European cyberpunkish dystopian films Renaissance 2006 and Metropia 2009 and Elana Gomel's Recycled Dystopias Cyberpunk and the End of History your understanding of the cinematic and post utopian possibility of cyberpunk will become more comprehensive For a cutting edge critique of cyberpunk manga let me recommend Martin de la Iglesia's Has Akira Always Been a Cyberpunk Comic which radically redefines the status of Akira 1982 1993 as trans generic paying attention to the genre consciousness of the contemporary readers of its Euro American editions Next Denis Taillandier's New Spaces for Old Motifs The Virtual Worlds of Japanese Cyberpunk interprets the significance of Japanese hardcore cyberpunk novels such as Goro Masaki's Venus City 1995 and Hirotaka Tobi's Grandes Vacances 2002 translated as The Thousand Year Beach 2018 and Ragged Girl 2006 paying special attention to how the authors created their virtual landscape in a Japanese way For a full discussion of William Gibson's works please read Janine Tobek and Donald Jellerson's Caring About the Past Present and Future in William Gibson's Pattern Recognition and Guerilla Games Horizon Zero Dawn along with my own Transpacific Cyberpunk Transgeneric Interactions between Prose Cinema and Manga The former reconsiders the first novel of Gibson's new trilogy in the 21st century not as realistic but as participatory whereas the latter relocates Gibson's essence not in cyberspace but in a junkyard making the most of his post Dada Surrealistic aesthetics and Lo Tek way of life as is clear in the 1990s Bridge trilogy

Asian Art News ,2003 A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Dr Elie G Haddad, Asst Prof David Rifkind, Ms Sarah Deyong, 2014-03-28 This book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 The first section provides a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects
