Person,2007-04-02 This groundbreaking study has been widely hailed for its focus on a human emotion generally considered impervious to rational analysis romantic passionate love Ethel Person views romantic love as a powerful agent of change arguing that it is as central to human culture as it is to

human existence This new edition of Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters emphasizes the relevance of passion not only to lovers but also to mental health professionals whose patients often enter treatment because of love related issues from the inability to love or make a commitment to the perils of extramarital love to love sickness or loss of love She forthrightly addresses not only the power of love to unlock the soul but also its inherent paradoxes and conflicts Employing a philosophical perspective in order to understand the existential dilemmas posed by love and a cultural perspective in order to understand its cultural variability Dr Person breaks with contemporary intellectual and philosophical dismissive assumptions about romantic love She acknowledges love's vital importance and power proposing that passion serves an important function not only for the individual but also for the culture while charging psychoanalysis with a reductionist emphasis on sexuality and psychopathology that has narrowed the focus of inquiry into love Among the issues she discusses are romantic love's sources in our early lives its relationship to imagination and creativity and its capacity to enable the lover to transcend the self how romantic love often demands a reordering of values and promotes personal growth by exposing the self to new risks and possibilities the transformational potential of transference love in the therapy process flaws in the common misperception that women are more influenced by romantic love than men considerations of homosexual love love across generations and love triangles focusing on the individual growth that can result from such relationships Citing accounts of love drawn from literature film and real life Person focuses on the lover's internal soliloquy and external dialogue with the beloved that can develop over an individual's life An uplifting resource for people experiencing failing or unorthodox romances Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters boldly takes on issues pertinent to lovers to professionals who encounter patients for whom key conflicts revolve around romantic love and to anyone who has struggled to understand the importance of romantic love in his or her own life Encyclopedia of World Problems and Human Potential Union of International Associations,1991 A sourcebook of information on over 13 000 recognized world problems their perceived interconnections and the organizational human resources available to analyze challenge and respond to them The problems have been compiled from governmental and non governmental sources Midnight in Tehran Christopher Sandford,2023-06-27 This is the gripping history of the Nazi sponsored attempt to infiltrate the 1943 wartime Allied conference in Tehran and assassinate the Big Three leaders Franklin Roosevelt Winston Churchill and Joseph Stalin It shows how close the plot came to success and how the removal of any one or more of the Allied chiefs might have significantly altered the future course of the Second World War Intended to be led by the SS lieutenant colonel Otto Skorzeny Operation Long Jump was ultimately detected by Soviet agents and it remains one of the most tantalizing what if questions of the 20th century Books Out Loud ,2007
