Mexico City's Zócalo Benjamin A. Bross, 2021-12-30 This book presents a case study of one of Latin America's most important and symbolic spaces the Zócalo in Mexico City weaving together historic events and corresponding morphological changes in the urban environment It poses questions about how the identity of a place emerges how it evolves and why does it change Mexico City's Zócalo A History of a Constructed Spatial Identity utilizes the history of a specific place the Zócalo Plaza de la Constitución to explain the emergence and evolution of Mexican identities over time Starting from the pre-Hispanic period to present day the work illustrates how the Zócalo reveals spatial manifestations as part of the larger socio-cultural zeitgeist By focusing on the history of changes in spatial production what Henri Lefebvre calls society's secretions Bross traces how cultural social economic and political forces shaped the Zócalo's spatial identity and in turn how the Zócalo shaped and fostered new identities in return It will be a fascinating read for architectural and urban historians investigating Latin America

Jerusalem Madelaine Adelman, Miriam Fendius Elman, 2014-06-12 Jerusalem is one of the most contested urban spaces in the world It is a multicultural city but one that is unlike other multi-ethnic cities such as London Toronto Paris or New York This book brings together scholars from across the social sciences and the humanities to consider how different disciplinary theories and methods contribute to the study of conflict and cooperation in modern Jerusalem Several essays in the book center on political decision making others focus on local and social issues While Jerusalem's centrality to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict is explored the chapters also cover issues that are unevenly explored in recent studies of the city These include Jerusalem's diverse communities of secular and orthodox Jewry and Christian Palestinians religious and political tourism and the heritage managers of Jerusalem the Israeli and Palestinian LGBT community and its experiences in Jerusalem and visual and textual perspectives on Jerusalem particularly in architecture and poetry Adelman and Elman argue that Jerusalem is not solely a place of contention and violence and that it should be seen as a physical and demographic reality that must function for all its communities

Judah and the Judeans in the Fourth Century B.C.E. Oded Lipschits, Gary N. Knoppers, Rainer Albertz, 2007-06-30 During the past decade the period from the 7th century B.C.E. and later has been a major focus because it is thought to be the era when much of the Hebrew Bible Old Testament was formed As a result there has also been much interest in the historical developments of that time and specifically in the status of Judah and its neighbors Three conferences dealing roughly with a century each were organized and the first conference was held in Tel Aviv in 2001 the proceedings of that conference were published as Judah and the Judeans in the Neo-Babylonian Period The second volume was published in early 2006 a report on the conference held in Heidelberg in July 2003 Judah and the Judeans in the Persian Period Judah and the Judeans in the Fourth Century B.C.E. is the publication of the proceedings of the third conference which was held in Muenster Germany in August 2005 the essays in it focus on the century during which the Persian Empire fell to Alexander the Great and the Hellenistic kingdoms came to the fore Participants whose contributions

Power and Place Gregory Stevenson, 2012-08-06 Archaeological epigraphic numismatic and historical research is used to illuminate the meaning and function of temples in both Jewish and Greco Roman cultures This evidence is then brought into a dialogue with a literary analysis of how the temple functions as a symbol in Revelation Jewish Studies on Premodern Periods Carl S. Ehrlich, Sara R. Horowitz, 2023-05-22 This volume examines new developments in the fields of premodern Jewish studies over the last thirty years The essays in this volume written by leading experts are grouped into four overarching temporal areas the First Temple Second Temple Rabbinic and Medieval periods These time periods are analyzed through four thematic methodological lenses the social scientific history and society the textual texts and literature the material art architecture and archaeology and the philosophical religion and thought Some essays offer a comprehensive look at the state of the field while others look at specific examples illustrative of their temporal and thematic areas of inquiry The volume presents a snapshot of the state of the field encompassing new perspectives directions and methodologies as well as the questions that will animate the field as it develops further It will be of interest to scholars and students in the field as well as to educated readers looking to understand the changing face of Jewish studies as a discipline advancing human knowledge

Jaguar and Five Rabbit Norris Ray Peery, 2004-10-27 Within these pages lives a story of love of friendships and of families which are imbedded within a place and time where the most diametrically opposite of human values existed and survived side by side where heaven and hell daily rubbed their social elbows and each of their elements were ever threatening the survival of their counterpart Here is a story of people caught between the gears and wheels of their god s invisible machinery that daily drives their universe Here is portrayed both the physical and psychological landscape of a time whose structures writings and beliefs have now been systematically destroyed by a new foreign master and a new foreign religion which has a so called Modern Strategy about blood sacrifice and intellectual domination Here is the story of lovers whose powerful desire to be forever together is the magic that guides them through an ever fluxing nightmare that is their reality The story opens in the capitol city of the Aztec Empire during the night of November the 8th in the year 1516 CE
