The Sacred Sculpture of Thailand Hiram W. Woodward, Donna K. Strahan, Walters Art Gallery (Baltimore, Md.), 1997 The sculpture of Thailand includes some of the most beautiful and significant works made anywhere in Asia but it is among the least studied and least well understood This pathbreaking and authoritative book tells the story of this sculpture beginning with the art of the kingdom of Dvaravati in the seventh century and ending with the abandonment of the city of Ayutthaya in 1767 Hiram W Woodward Jr the principal author bases his account on a study of the most important and comprehensive collection outside Thailand that formed by the pioneering American scholar Alexander B Griswold and bequeathed to the Walters Art Gallery in Baltimore Maryland An unprecedented array of technical tests has been carried out on the Griswold sculptures Thermoluminescence analysis has determined age metal analysis has revealed the content of the alloys and clay core analysis has provided insights into probable place of origin Conclusions drawn from these tests have been integrated into Dr Woodward's narrative Never before has the sequence of styles and the development of regional traditions been presented so clearly The results of the tests presented in full will be a resource for students of Thai art for decades     The Sacred Sculpture of Thailand, 1997

Claudine Bautze-Picron, 2010-12-01 This book represents a comprehensive study of The Bejewelled Buddha considering stylistic as well as iconographic issues A crucial moment in the Buddha's life seems to have been referred to through this image namely the sojourn on Mount Meru where the Buddha sat on Indra's seat and taught all the gods By occupying the seat of the king of the gods he was able to endorse the royal function of this deity this becomes particularly evident in the late fifth century and probably reflects the dramatic situation that the Buddhist community was confronted with i.e. the political power essentially fostering the Hindu religion and social structure Hence the Buddha is depicted as a perfect and powerful ruler sitting at the top of the universe and showing himself adorned as a king more than any human ruler the Buddha rules over the universe There is also another dimension that should never be neglected as in any other Indian cult worship of his image entailed offerings of various kinds such as flower garlands or jewels being made to the Buddha The image of the Bejewelled Buddha thus included various constituents while at the same time it was used as the locus where different religious or political concepts found a way of expression The result was the creation of an image of multi layered significance which found its way into all Asian cultures     Teaching South and Southeast Asian Art Bokyung Kim, Kyunghee Pyun, 2023-04-10 This volume challenges existing notions of what is Indian Southeast Asian and/or South Asian art to help educators present a more contextualized understanding of art in a globalized world In doing so it re-examines how South or Southeast Asian art is being made exhibited circulated and experienced in new ways in the United States or in regions under its cultural hegemony The essays presented in this book examine both historical and contemporary transformations or lived experiences of monuments and regional styles sites from South or Southeast Asian art in art making subsequent usage and exhibition making under the rubric of Indian South Asian or Southeast Asian Art
