Epiphanies in the Modernist Short Story Valeria Taddei,2024-04-10 The poetics of epiphany have long been recognised as a broad aesthetic trend of modernism related to the power of art to reveal the hidden essence of reality Yet the critical use of the concept is still contested complicated by the fact that in many modernist works exceptional moments are anything but revealing This book embraces the blurred nature of epiphanies and sets out to explore their effects in a comparative journey paralleling Anglophone and Italian modernist short fiction The work of four modernist short story writers Luigi Pirandello James Joyce Federico Tozzi and

Katherine Mansfield illuminates epiphanies as complex phenomena connected to multiple aspects of modernist culture which appear in artistic experiences developed independently in the same decades. The ideas of Henri Bergson, William James, Martin Heidegger and Maurice Merleau-Ponty among others nuance our understanding of the stories and of the author's vision behind them. At least three threads emerge as a result as common characteristics of modernist epiphanies. First they are a result of the inward turn and of the curiosity about the psyche's subconscious processes. Second they attempt to rediscover lived experience as a source of partial but reliable knowledge. Third they reactualise mystical experiences as conduits to a secular insight about life. The main appeal of these modernist moments of enlightenment is precisely that they establish an atmosphere of ambiguity where multiple and sometimes irreconcilable potential meanings can be found. By so doing they succeed in evoking the undifferentiated creative potential that according to the widespread vitalist philosophies of the age constitutes the essence of life. In reframing ambiguity and indeterminacy as spaces of creation and choice, epiphanies thus bring out a lesser-known life-affirming but not naïve vein of modernist inspiration. Pilgrims of Love Pnina Werbner, 2016-12-19 will be of interest not only to those concerned with Pakistan and the new Muslim presence in Europe but also to those interested in an anthropological study of religion. Barbara Metcalf, University of California, Davis. Pnina Werbner traces the development of a Sufi Naqshbandi order founded by a living saint, Zindapir, whose cult originated in Pakistan and has extended globally to Britain, Europe, the Middle East and southern Africa. Drawing on 12 years of fieldwork in Pakistan and Great Britain, she elucidates the complex organization of Sufi orders as regional and transnational cults and examines how such cults are manifested through ritual action and embodied in sacred mythology and global diasporas. A focus of the study is the key event in the order's annual ritual cycle, a celebration in which tens of thousands of people gather at the saint's lodge in Pakistan and in the streets of Britain. Werbner challenges accepted anthropological and sociological truths about Islam and modernity and reflects on her own role as ethnographic observer. Pilgrims of Love is a major contribution to our understanding of diasporic Islamic practices, highlighting the vitality of Sufi orders in the postcolonial world.
