Sacred Love Letters Nichole Thomas,2003-08 Like music written on her heart from her first love Selah The woman cannot deny what she feels as she is awakened by a love cry so refreshing it is like rivers of living waters selah She is like the woman at the well many lovers have caressed her body yet none of her former lovers have caressed her soul Selah Until she found him the woman had many lonely nights some filled with sex some filled with tears Oh how sweet it is for the lovely lady to finally be touched by the perfect lover selah In the midst of her distress I heard my lady cry out for me oh my lady my bride the apple of my eye come run to me your lover and find rest for your soul You have cried far too long my angel now it is time for you to experience a love that can spring forth life joy and happiness Allow me to awaken you from your sleepless nights I am concerned for you I need you Allow my words to bring healing to your weary mind I want to touch the places that have been off limit to many Would you allow us time alone Maybe we can sit at a table in the early morning hours and share our thoughts If you come I ll be waiting The Perfect Lover God The Lover of Your Soul God The Complete Art of Writing Love Letters; Or, the Lover's Best Instructor, Etc ,1800 A select collection of the original Love Letters of several eminent persons ... now living, printed from genuine manuscripts. To which are subjoin'd poems by eminent ladies, particularly Mrs. Barber, Mrs Behn, Miss Carter, etc. [Edited by G. Gaylove.] G. GAYLOVE (pseud.),1755 The Book of Touch Constance Classen,2020-09-03 This book puts a finger on the nerve of culture by delving into the social life of touch our most elusive yet most vital sense From the tortures of the Inquisition to the corporeal comforts of modernity and from the tactile therapies of Asian medicine to the virtual tactility of cyberspace The Book of Touch offers excursions into a sensory territory both foreign and familiar How are masculine and feminine identities shaped by touch What are the tactile experiences of the blind or the autistic How is touch developed differently across cultures What are the boundaries of pain and pleasure Is there a politics of touch Bringing together classic writings and new work this is an essential guide for anyone interested in the body the senses and the experiential world Jung & Film II Christopher Hauke,Luke Hockley,2011 This book tackles the broader issues of film production and consumption the audience and the place of film culture in our lives Jung and Film II: The Return Christopher Hauke,Luke Hockley,2012-05-23 Since Jung and Film was first published in 2001 Jungian writing on the moving image in film and television has accelerated Jung and Film II The Return provides new contributions from authors across the globe willing to tackle the broader issues of film production and consumption the audience and the place of film culture in our lives As well as chapters dealing with particular film makers such as Maya Derren and films such as Birth The Piano The Wrestler and Breaking the Wave there is also a unique chapter co written by documentary film maker Tom Hurvitz and New York Jungian analyst Margaret Klenck Other areas of discussion include the way in which psychological issues come under scrutiny in many movies the various themes that concern Jungian writers on film how Jungian ideas on psychological personality types can be applied in fresh ways to analyse a variety of characters The book also includes a glossary to help readers with Jungian words and concepts Jung and Film II is not only a welcome companion to the first volume it is an important stand alone work essential for all academics and students of analytical psychology as well as film media and cultural studies The Independent ,1901 Breaking the Fall Robert Detweiler,1995-01-01 The power of his writing reminds us of the relative neglect of modern and post modern literature by most studies which are concerned with the relation ship between literature and religion *The Lover's New Guide; Or, A Complete Library of Love. Cinema as Therapy John Izod,Joanna Dovalis,2014-12-17 Loss is an inescapable reality of life and individuals need to develop a capacity to grieve in order to mature and live life to the full Yet most western movie audiences live in cultures that do not value this necessary process and filmgoers finding themselves deeply moved by a particular film are often left wondering why In Cinema as Therapy John Izod and Joanna Dovalis set out to fill a gap in work on the conjunction of grief therapy and cinema Looking at films including Million Dollar Baby The Son s Room Birth and The Tree of Life Cinema as Therapy offers an understanding of how deeply emotional life can be stirred at the movies Izod and Dovalis note that cinema is a medium which engages people in a virtual dialogue with their own and their culture s unconscious more deeply than is commonly thought By analysing the meaning of each film and the root cause of the particular losses featured the authors demonstrate how our experiences in the movie theatre create an opportunity to prepare psychologically for the inevitable losses we must all eventually face In recognising that the movie theatre shares symbolic features with both the church and the therapy room the reader sees how it becomes a sacred space where people can encounter the archetypal and ease personal suffering through laughter or tears without inhibition or fear to reach a deeper understanding of themselves Cinema as Therapy will be essential reading for therapists students and academics working in film studies and looking to engage with psychological studies in depth as well as filmgoers who want to explore their relationship with the screen The book includes a glossary of Jungian and Freudian terms which enhances the clarity of the text and the understanding of the reader The Letters in the Story Eve Tavor Bannet,2021-12-02 First study of a long tradition of mixed mode writing largely favored by British women novelists that combined fully transcribed letters with third person narrative Heart Poems from the Best Authors Amy Neally,1898 Short stories and index Elbert Hubbard,1923 New Outlook ,1909 Outlook and Independent ,1909 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1896 The Outlook ,1896 A Politician Goes to War William Alan Blair,Bell Irvin Wiley,1991-02-01 This last known work of noted historian Bell Irvin Wiley reveals the private mind of John White Geary a Union general from Pennsylvania through his Civil War letters to his wife Mary Wiley had selected these roughly 200 letters for publication but the unfinished manuscript lay undiscovered for twelve years after the

historian's death The letters provide a rare glimpse of the two main theaters of war through the eyes of a general officer Geary saw action at Cedar Mountain and Gettysburg in the Virginia theater and in the major campaigns in the west from lifting the siege at Chattanooga to marching with William T Sherman through Georgia and the Carolinas The fascination Geary's letters held for Wiley the quintessential scholar of the common person is clear the letters of an uncommon man reveal ordinary concerns about children money home and religion that linked Geary to many on both sides of the war Geary's letters also show another side of the officer that of the consummate politician who knew that military service provided capital for future political campaigns Through intense self promotion he had fashioned a reputation that served him well in gaining respected political posts both before and after the war he fought in the Mexican War and served as the first mayor of San Francisco and as territorial governor of Kansas during the period known as Bloody Kansas in addition to winning two terms as governor of Pennsylvania after the war Ultimately the letters of John White Geary show how a political general plied his trade They reveal the complexities of any historical figure for Geary had both the admirable qualities of loyalty to the Union and the less attractive need to exaggerate his abilities to enhance his career Letters to Persons in the World Saint Francis de Sales, Aeterna Press, 2015-09-01 MANY BESIDES MYSELF will have heard with great satisfaction that it is in contemplation to prepare a complete and careful English translation of the works of St Francis de Sales The position of St Francis as a teacher of the Universal Church has long been assured But the recent Pontifical decree which has enrolled him among those who are formally called Doctors of the Church has directed the attention of all devout Christians to a more exhaustive examination of all that he has written Those who use the English tongue may well desire to have an adequate English edition of a Saint who is one of the great devotional teachers of the Church during the time which has elapsed since the Council of Trent Aeterna Press
