Sacrifice and Modern Thought Julia Meszaros,Johannes

Zachhuber,2013-10-03 Sacrifice has always been central to the study of religion yet attempts to understand and assess the concept have usually been controversial The present book which is the result of several years of interdisciplinary collaboration suggests that in many ways the fascination with sacrifice has its roots in modernity itself Theological developments following the Reformation the rediscovery of Greek tragedies and the encounter with the practice of human sacrifice in the Americas triggered a complex and passionate debate in the sixteenth century which has never since abated Contributors to this volume leading experts from theology anthropology and literary and cultural studies describe and discuss how this modern fascination for the topic of sacrifice has evolved how it has shaped theological debate the literary imagination and anthropological theory Individual chapters discuss in depth major theological trajectories theories of sacrifice including those of Marcel Mauss and Ren Girard and current feminist criticism They engage with sacrifice in the context of religious and philosophical thought works of literature and film They explore different yet overlapping aspects of modernity s obsession with sacrifice The book does not intend to impose a single narrative over all these diverse contributions but brings them into a conversation around a common centre

The Atonement of Christ's Blood Clark

Brown,2021-05 What is the relationship between Jesus sacrifice and our redemption forgiveness and receiving an inheritance per the terms of the covenant will that was effected by His death From what and to what are we saved Is it Jesus death alone that saves us What part does His resurrection have in our salvation Does the justice of God demand the satisfaction of blood before He will forgive similar to what pagans throughout history have believed What was the purpose of the Old Testament sacrifices Does blood alone atone for sin How does Christ s death render powerless the devil To whom was Christ s life given as a ransom From what are we ransomed Why did Jesus not only die but suffer and die If all that was necessary was His shed blood why didn t God sovereignly ordain a more merciful death for His own dear Son What is the relationship between a will or testament and a covenant What was willed to Jesus as an inheritance from His Father and what was willed to us through the new testament in His blood
