From Sad Nun at Synanon

I never believed that dirty words meant that when people of regular size mingled, I would have that funny, ready-made response that became the answer I needed to get away from the
"out" of that place.

It has been so long since I wrote, and now when I try to remember it, I find myself unable to do more than of it, then I realize that I never was. You'll know that I never was.

Nobody told me the feelings.
Nobody told me the temptations when I took off my clothing that first day, there were no temptations. All I possessed were my eyes and my mind. The feeling of fear and pain hadn't yet reached my heart.

Synanon has a phrase for people who see things only through their own perceptions: those who go through life listening to the sound of one hand clapping. I left Synanon to work with them, as it did seem that they'd been eyes in their hands.
