The Struggle for Political Power in Balochistan, 1929-47 Kashif Iqbal, 2023-03-01 The British created a win-win situation for themselves On the one hand they patronized Khan of Kalats On the other hand they gave some powers to the sardars The Khans endeavored to gain control as much as possible On the contrary the local sardars were also requiring more ability In this complex situation the British presented themselves as mediators This three-dimensional power game threw Balochistan in the slipstream of the power struggle They did not give the state of Balochistan proper attention for political advancement The aim of the British was to secure the area from foreign threats The same situation was with the Khan of Kalat and local sardars They collaborated with the British as far as the British did not intervene in Balochistan and the Mélange of Violence Seema Khan, 2023-11-10 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the intricate security situation prevailing in Balochistan It explores and establishes correlations between the internal structural vulnerabilities and fault lines of the Pakistani state with the external influences exerted on the region Employing a rigorous examination of both primary and secondary data the volume critically examines the multifaceted nature of organised violence in Balochistan In addition to separatist movements the presence of religious militancy and cross border terrorism is thoroughly examined The book delves into the external involvement of regional and global powers in the intricate tapestry of violence within Balochistan thereby shedding light on the emerging geopolitical landscape and the corresponding power dynamics in the region It also analyses how the implementation of largescale developmental initiatives particularly facilitated by China under the auspices of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC has elevated the geostrategic significance of Balochistan while simultaneously entangling it in the vortex of regional power politics This volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers specializing in geopolitics International Relations and South Asian studies Report on the Police Administration in the Bengal Presidency Bengal (India).
