Saddle Up For Steamboat:

Saddle Up for Steamboat Allan Vaughan Elston, 1972 One Man's Trash Ivan Coyote, 2002-09-01 In Close to Spider Man which won a Danuta Gleed Literary Award readers were introduced to the crystalline storytelling voice of Ivan Coyote. The talent evident in that first collection is confirmed with One Man's Trash a series of connected stories about being queer searching out new frontiers and being on the road. The characters in One Man's Trash make evident the child in all of us when heroes and superheroes won the day. Including the hilarious account of an attempted lesbian wedding in a Las Vegas chapel and a touching tale of being beguiled by an uncle's independent minded girlfriend these are stories about being on the road to the northern tundra or the southern desert through cities and towns on horses in trucks and vans with friends family and lovers. In achingly personal tones Ivan Coyote paints beautiful and honest portraits of life the road and the spirits within. Praise for Close to Spider Man Blissfully rich a thoroughly entertaining surefooted humorous take on misfit love and familial solidarity Publishers Weekly Coyote's debut short story collection is powerful. These stories consistently detail the pain of being mis understood of living and trying to love where one doesn't fit in and doesn't want to. Their beauty is in the sheer emotion they provoke.
