Sea Beach Express:

Sea Beach Express George Panetta, 1966 Tony and his Italian American family ride the Sea Beach Express to Coney Island and Tony's first day at the beach turns out to be better than he had dreamed New York City Best Books on, 1939

How We Got to Coney Island Brian J. Cudahy, 2009-08-25 A 150 year history of the planning construction and development of all forms of mass transportation in Brooklyn New York How We Got to Coney Island is the definitive history of mass transportation in Brooklyn Covering 150 years of extraordinary growth Cudahy tells the complete story of the trolleys street cars steamboats and railways that helped create New York's largest borough and the remarkable system that grew to connect the world's most famous seaside resort with Brooklyn New York City across the river and ultimately the rest of the world Includes tables charts photographs and maps Praise for How We Got to Coney Island This is an example of a familiar and decidedly old fashioned genre of transport history It is primarily an examination of the business politics of railway development and amalgamation in Brooklyn and adjoining districts since the mid nineteenth century The Journal of Transport History Annual Report ... New York (State). Board of Railroad Commissioners, 1904 Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division, 1848 Supreme Court, The Last Express Baynard Kendrick, 2021-03-09 A puzzling murder has a blind detective investigating the New York City subway in this Golden Age mystery series opener Following the loss of his sight in World War I ex intelligence officer Capt Duncan Maclain honed his other senses and became one of the most successful and well known private investigators in the Big Apple Kind and sympathetic he's eager to help anyone who visits his office Evelyn Zarinka's at the end of her rope and at her fiancé's suggestion she goes to see his friend Maclain for help For the past three months Evelyn has noticed a startling change in her brother Paul assistant district attorney for New York City's Homicide Division First it was the strange phone calls then he bought a gun and started drinking heavily And it's only gotten worse After speaking with Evelyn Maclain is certain Paul's in trouble But the detective is too late to help him Paul's car explodes killing the assistant DA The only clues are two caged white mice left in the back of the car and Paul's dying words Sea Beach Subway the last express Now with his seeing eye dog Maclain finds himself in Manhattan's seedy underbelly and its literal underground on the hunt for a killer willing to do anything to throw the investigation off the rails Baynard Kendrick was the first American to enlist in the Canadian Army during World War I While in London he met a blind English soldier whose observational skills inspired the character of Capt Duncan Maclain Kendrick was also a founding member of the Mystery Writers of America and winner of the organization's Grand Master Award The Routes Not Taken Joseph B. Raskin, 2013-12-01 Robert A Van Wyck mayor of the greater city of New York broke ground for the first subway line by City Hall on March 24 1900 It took four years six months and twenty three days to build the line from City Hall to West 145th Street in Harlem Things rarely went that quickly ever again The Routes Not Taken explores the often dramatic stories behind the unbuilt or unfinished subway lines shedding light on a significant part of New York City's history that has been almost completely ignored until now Home to one of the world's largest subway systems New York City made constant efforts to expand its underground labyrinth efforts that were often met with unexpected obstacles financial shortfalls clashing agendas of mayors and borough presidents battles with local community groups and much more After discovering a copy of the 1929 subway expansion map author Joseph Raskin began his own investigation into the city's underbelly Using research from libraries historical societies and transit agencies throughout the New York metropolitan area Raskin provides a fascinating history of the Big Apple's unfinished business that until now has been only tantalizing stories retold by public transit experts The Routes Not Taken sheds light on the tunnels and stations that were completed for lines that were never fulfilled the efforts to expand the Hudson tubes into a fullfledged subway the Flushing line and why it never made it past Flushing a platform underneath Brooklyn's Nevins Street station that has remained unused for more than a century and the 2nd Avenue line long the symbol of dashed dreams deferred countless times since the original plans were presented in 1929 Raskin also reveals the figures and personalities involved including why Fiorello LaGuardia could not grasp the importance of subway lines and why Robert Moses found them to be old and boring By focusing on the unbuilt lines Raskin illustrates how the existing subway system is actually a Herculean feat of countless political compromises Filled with illustrations of the extravagant expansion plans The Routes Not Taken provides an enduring contribution to the transportation history of New York City New York Supreme Court Appellate Division First Department, Long Island Life, 1916 Metropolitan Management, Transportation and Planning, 1965 From Brooklyn to Tokyo Bay Albert R. Pincus, 2004-08-01 From Brooklyn To Tokyo Bay A Sailor's Story is the story of how Albert R Pincus and the young men of his generation fought for the United States during World War II This poignant yet humorous tale of young men caught up in one of history's bloodiest wars follows Albert all the way from his childhood home in Brooklyn to the front lines of military combat and back Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977 Blue Ghost Memoirs Otto C. Romanelli, 2003 Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Senate, 1916 Under the Sidewalks of New York Brian J. Cudahy, 1995 But as it is in no other city on earth the subway of New York is intimately woven into the fabric and identity of the city itself Stories of Our Lives Frank de Caro, 2013-05-15 In Stories of Our Lives Frank de Caro demonstrates the value of personal narratives in enlightening our lives and our world We all live with legends family sagas and anecdotes that shape our selves and give meaning to our recollections Featuring an array of colorful stories from de Caro's personal life and years of field research as a folklorist the book is part memoir and part exploration of how the stories we tell listen to and learn play an integral role in shaping our sense of self De Caro's narrative includes stories within the story among them a near mythic capture of his golden haired grandmother by Plains Indians a quintessential Italian rags to riches grandfather and his own experiences growing up in culturally rich 1950s New York City living in India amid the fading glories of a former princely state conducting field research on Day of the Dead altars in Mexico and coming home to a battered New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina Stories of Our Lives shows that our lives are interesting and that the stories we tell however particular to our own circumstances or trivial they may seem to others reveal something about ourselves our societies our cultures and our larger human existence

The Scots Revised Reports Alexander Dunlop,1902 The City Record New York (N.Y.),1904 Reports of Decisions
