Seagoing Ships Seamanship In The Bronze Age Levant:

Seagoing Ships and Seamanship in the Bronze Age Levant Shelley Wachsmann, 2018-05-04 During the Bronze Age the ancient societies that ringed the Mediterranean once mostly separate and isolate began to reach across the great expanse of sea to conduct trade marking an age of immense cultural growth and technological development These intersocietal lines of communication and paths for commerce relied on rigorous open water travel And as a potential superhighway the Mediterranean demanded much in the way of seafaring knowledge and innovative ship design if it were to be successfully navigated In Seagoing Ships and Seamanship in the Bronze Age Levant Shelley Wachsmann presents a one of a kind comprehensive examination of how the early eastern Mediterranean cultures took to the sea and how they evolved as a result The author surveys the blue water ships of the Egyptians Syro Canaanites Cypriots Early Bronze Age Aegeans Minoans Mycenaean and Sea Peoples and discusses known Bronze Age shipwrecks Relying on archaeological ethnological iconographic and textual evidence Wachsmann delivers a fascinating and intricate rendering of virtually every aspect of early sea travel from ship construction and propulsion to war on the open water piracy and laws pertaining to conduct at sea This broad study is further enhanced by contributions from other renowned scholars J Hoftijzer and W H van Soldt offer new and illuminating translations of Ugaritic and Akkadian documents that refer to seafaring J R Lenz delves into the Homeric Greek lexicon to search out possible references to the birdlike shapes that adorned early ships stem and stern F Hocker provides a useful appendix and glossary of nautical terms and George F Bass s foreword frames the study s scholarly significance and discusses its place in the nautical archaeological canon This book brings together for the first time the entire corpus of evidence pertaining to Bronze Age seafaring and will be of special value to archaeologists maritime historians philologists and Bronze Age textual scholars Offering an abundance of line drawings and photographs and written in a style that makes the material easily accessible to the layperson Wachsmann s study is certain to become a standard reference for anyone interested in the dawn of sea travel

Seagoing Ships and Seamanship in the Late Bronze Age Levant Shelley Wachsmann, 1989 Early Ships and Seafaring: Water Transport within Europe Seán McGrail, 2014-11-30 Early Ships and Seafaring Water Transport Within Europe builds on Professor Sen McGrail s 2006 volume Ancient Boats and Ships by delving deeper into the construction and use of boats and ships between the stone age and AD1500 in order to provide up to date information Regions covered will include the Mediterranean and Atlantic Europe This interesting volume is easily accessible to those with little to no knowledge of the building and uses of boats whether ancient or modern Sen McGrail introduces the reader to this relatively new discipline through the theory and techniques used in the study of early boats as well as the many different types of evidence available to us including archaeological documentary iconographic experimental and ethnographic and the natural physical laws Maritime Networks in the Mycenaean World Thomas F. Tartaron, 2013-05-27 The problem of Mycenaean coastal worlds Mycenaeans and the sea Ships and boats of the Aegean Bronze Age The maritime environment of the Aegean Sea Coasts and harbors of the Bronze Age Aegean characteristics discovery and reconstruction Concepts for Mycenaean coastal worlds Coastscapes and small worlds of the Aegean Bronze Age case studies Conclusions and prospects The Social Archaeology of the Levant Assaf Yasur-Landau, Eric H. Cline, Yorke Rowan, 2018-12-20 The volume offers a comprehensive introduction to the archaeology of the southern Levant modern day Israel Palestine and Jordan from the Paleolithic period to the Islamic era presenting the past with chronological changes from hunter gatherers to empires Written by an international team of scholars in the fields of archaeology epigraphy and bioanthropology the volume presents central debates around a range of archaeological issues including gender ritual the creation of alphabets and early writing biblical periods archaeometallurgy looting and maritime trade Collectively the essays also engage diverse theoretical approaches to demonstrate the multi vocal nature of studying the past Significantly The Social Archaeology of the Levant updates and contextualizes major shifts in archaeological interpretation The Oxford Handbook of Maritime Archaeology Alexis Catsambis, Ben Ford, Donny L. Hamilton, 2014-02 This title is a comprehensive survey of maritime archaeology as seen through the eyes of nearly fifty scholars at a time when maritime archaeology has established itself as a mature branch of archaeology The Minoan Shipwreck at Pseira, Crete Elpida Hadjidaki-Marder, 2021-06-15 The excavation of a Minoan shipwreck dated to 1725 1700 BC is described The cargo includes the largest known corpus of complete and almost complete clay vessels from a single Middle Minoan IIB deposit The transport boat provides interesting information on a society that revolved around seafaring The Gurob Ship-Card Model and Its Mediterranean Context Shelley Wachsmann, 2013-01-09 When Shelley Wachsmann began his analysis of the small ship model excavated by assistants of famed Egyptologist W M F Petrie in Gurob Egypt in 1920 he expected to produce a brief monograph that would shed light on the model and the ship type that it represented Instead Wachsmann discovered that the model held clues to the identities and cultures of the enigmatic Sea Peoples to the religious practices of ancient Egypt and Greece and to the oared ships used by the Bronze Age Mycenaean Greeks Although found in Egypt the prototype of the Gurob model was clearly an Aegean style galley of a type used by both the Mycenaeans and the Sea Peoples The model is the most detailed representation presently known of this vessel type which played a major role in changing the course of world history Contemporaneous textual evidence for Sherden one of the Sea Peoples settled in the region suggests that the model may be patterned after a galley of that culture Bearing a typical Helladic bird head decoration topping the stempost with holes along the sheer strakes confirming the use of stanchions the model was found with four wheels and other evidence for a wagon like support structure connecting it with European cultic prototypes The online resources that accompany the book illustrate Wachsmann's research and analysis They include 3D interactive models that allow readers to examine the Gurob model on their computers as if held in the hand both in its present state and in two hypothetical reconstructions The online component also contains high resolution color photos of the model maps and satellite photos of the site and other related materials Offering a wide range of insights and evidence for linkages among ancient Mediterranean peoples and traditions The Gurob Ship Cart Model and Its Mediterranean Context presents an invaluable asset for anyone interested in the complexities of cultural change in the eastern Mediterranean at the end of the Bronze Age and the beginning of the Iron Age The Gurob ship cart model is was part of an exhibition entitled Beyond the Nile Egypt and the Classical World at the J Paul Getty Center March 27 September 9 2018 Read about it here <http://blogs.getty.edu/iris/egyptian-ship-model-sheds-light-on-bronze-age-warfare-and-religion/> Digital supplement to the book featuring 3D models <http://www.vizin.org/Gurob/Gurob.html>

Homeric Seafaring Samuel Mark, 2005-02-09 In this comprehensive history of Homer's references to ships and seafaring author Samuel Mark reveals patterns in the way that Greeks built ships and approached the sea between 850 and 750 b.c. To discuss and clarify the terms used by Homer Mark draws on scholarly literature as well as examples from recent excavations of ancient shipwrecks Mark begins by emphasizing the importance of the household during a period in which chiefs ruled and Greek nobles disdained merchants and considered seafaring a necessary but less than distinguished activity His chapter on Odysseus's construction of a ship includes discussions of the types of wood used He concludes that most Greek ships were of laced rather than pegged mortise and tenon construction Mark goes on to discuss characteristics of Homeric ships and their stern ornaments oars quarter rudders masts mast steps keels ropes cables and planks Mark reaches several surprising conclusions that in an agricultural society seafaring was a common activity even among the nobles that hugging the coast could be more treacherous than sailing across open sea that Homeric ships were built mainly to be sailed instead of rowed that sea battles were relatively common that helmsmen were crucial to a safe voyage and that harbors were little more than natural anchorages Mark's discussion of Homer's geography covers theories that posit Odysseus sailing in the Adriatic and Mediterranean Seas and even on the Atlantic Ocean As befits a study whose subjects are partly historical partly archaeological and partly myth and legend Mark's conclusions are tentative Yet this comprehensive and meticulous study of Homer's references to ships and seafaring is sure to become a standard study on the subject
