audiences who can appreciate the substance of a play beyond its surface appeal Such audiences would demand quality from the theater fostering an environment where plays of genuine artistic and intellectual value can thrive Addressing the structural challenges faced by playwrights in the American theater system Thompson advocates for greater support for emerging playwrights and stresses that a living drama is essential for the cultural health of society In this way Thompson envisions a theater that not only entertains but also inspires educates and enriches its community preserving civilization's core values through art This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1942 The Black Comedy of John Guare Gene A. J. Eberhart,2007-04-11 M J

Eberhart aka the Nimblewill Nomad was a 60 year old retired doctor in January 1998 when he set off on a foot journey that carried him 4 400 miles twice the length of the Appalachian Trail from the Florida Keys to the far north of Quebec Written in a vivid journal style the author unabashedly recounts the good friendships with other hikers he met the bad sore legs cutting winds and rain and the godawful those dispiriting doubts aspects of his days of walking along what has since become known as the Eastern Continental Trail ECT An amazing tale of self discovery and insight into the magic that reverberates from intense physical exertion and a high goal Eberhart s is the only written account of a thru hike along the ECT Covering 16 states and 2 Canadian provinces Ten Million Steps deftly mixes practical considerations of an almost unimaginable undertaking with the author s trademark humor and philosophical musings Aftermaths Marcus Paul Bullock,Peter

Yoonsuk Paik,2009 Aftermaths is a collection of essays offering compelling new ideas on exile migration and diaspora that have emerged in the global age In seeking fresh perspectives on the movement of people and ideas the essays included here look to the power of the aesthetic experience especially in literature and film to unsettle existing theoretical paradigms and enable the rethinking of conventionalized approaches The Golden Book Magazine ,1926 Irish Writing ,1949

Artists All Burton Raffel,1991 Basic human drives that the arts and aesthetic experiences frequently inspire insight in scientists and sociologist that the arts themselves though mutually untranslatable share a deep unity that disciplinary boundaries and divisions can frequently stunt creativity that and that there is always a link between what artists produce and their stance toward their society s place and posture in the world When used to define intellectual disciplines the very word Interdisciplinary is a misnomer almost a contradiction in terms Raffel contends because it implies boundaries rather than interconnectedness and interrelationships Since it is his own primary concern Raffel uses literature as a touchstone analyzing its relationships with social science natural science music and the visual arts He then provides practical recommendations addressed to the academic community as a whole about ways of restructuring universities to reflect functioning interdisciplinary realities rather than convenient but artificial and seriously constrictive disciplinary boundaries Written with humor and sensitivity Artists All makes a significant contribution to current thinking about higher education
