Passion's Vision Mary Adair, 2010-07-25 Passion's Vision James Fitz Gerald is an agent in the court of King George II. James is on a mission from his King when he arrives in the village called Chota Town. It does not take him long to realize there is a power beyond the King at work among the Cherokee. New Moon, sister to Chief Dancing Cloud, is a warrior in her own right. She will run through the wilds of a savage country to save the life of the man she has chosen. When James arrives in her village, she is reminded of the troubling vision sent to her by the Great Spirit. She vows she will never choose him. Passion's Vision is the story of the love that grows between an agent in the court of King George II and a Cherokee Princess. Their lives are destined to be filled with adventure and triumph, sometimes with loss and pain, but always with passion.

The Jewelers' Circular, 1917 Stone Linda Mooney, 2019 Garenth had been awakened to retrieve an ancient artifact that was crucial to his well-being. He had few memories of what his life had been like when he had been a man. What memories that were left were filled with blood and excruciating pain. That part of him was over now. The talisman had been taken from its sacred burial place and it had to be returned as quickly as possible. It was up to him to follow through with his mission so he could return to another thousand years of sleep. Brielle Van de Camp knew an extraordinary find when she saw it. The small clay figure was the key to a potentially earth-shattering revelation about a previously unknown time in man's ancestry. She would bet her life on it. Unfortunately, others had gotten wind of the talisman and they were equally determined to claim its promise for themselves. If Brielle wasn't willing to part with the figurine, they had no compunction about prying it from her dead fingers. They never counted on having to face the guardian of the statuette, who turned out to be more than a creature of mythology.
