Searching for the Lost Tombs of Egypt Chris Naunton, 2019-09-24 An exciting archeological exploration of ancient Egypt that examines the potential for discovering the remaining lost tombs of the pharaohs. Tombs, mummies, and funerary items make up a significant portion of the archeological remains that survive ancient Egypt and have come to define the popular perception of Egyptology. Despite the many sensational discoveries in the last century such as the tomb of Tutankhamun, the tombs of some of the most famous individuals in the ancient world, Imhotep, Nefertiti, Alexander the Great, and Cleopatra, have not yet been found. Archeologist Chris Naunton examines the famous pharaohs, their achievements, the bling they might have been buried with, the circumstances in which they were buried, and why those circumstances may have prevented archeologists from finding these tombs. In Searching for the Lost Tombs of Egypt, Naunton sheds light on the lives of these ancient Egyptians and makes an exciting case for the potential discovery of these lost tombs. John Van Seters, 1997 The primary concern of the book is to understand the origins and nature of history writing in ancient Israel. The investigation is undertaken against the background of history writing in the Near Eastern and classical worlds. Professor Van Seters begins with a broad survey of all the historiographic material relevant for the study of Israel's own writing of history. He then turns his attention to the question of Israel's historiography by focusing particularly on the Deuteronomistic Historian, the first Israelite historian. Searching for Ancient Egypt, 1997 Disability in Ancient Egypt and Egyptology
