Shabazz,2016-04-21 The purpose of this book is for each of us to experience God's love and God's unfiltered passion for us and that we learn God on a personal and intimate level That we become proactive in seeking God and as a friend once said Pursue the God that pursued you My prayer is that as you read this book the words will spark a deep desire within your heart mind and soul to learn the truth about God A desire to learn the truth about God His love for you His will His purpose for your life and so much more I heard a minister say Each generation has to find their own truth about God Therefore it is my continuous desire that we find our own personal truth in God and allow that truth to be our compass This book is a tool for you to use daily Read it meditate on the word write down your revelations because the real awakening is revealed once you go beyond the words on the following pages dig deeper into the word of God and spend time in prayer As you dig I promise that you will see truths never seen before and you will experience a revelatory flow from heaven that is just for you Seek God Pursue God Experience God as you actively learn about His goodness mercy and love      Seeking God Peter Jeffery,1980      Seeking God's Face Notto R. Thelle,2008 Is it possible to find God beyond the distorted images and empty words Can we even speak about God at all The author claims that it is more important than ever to look for a truer image of God A person who seeks God's face will be compelled at the same time to seek his or her own face Conversely those seeking to find themselves are often compelled to search for God The book describes faith as a spacious landscape in which one can breathe freely and engages the rich imagery of the Bible to help the individual breathe freely and find orientation without feeling imprisoned This openness and freedom are to be found in the Gospel itself says the author They were lived by the Master himself who portrayed the face of God by meeting human and author Andrew Murray as he takes you through the many appearances of the word perfect in Scripture From these passages Murray concludes that Perfection is possible and attainable To know perfection we must accept God s commands and obey them Perfection is not an arbitrary command the nature of God can ask for nothing less Perfection is the highest aim of what God in His great power can do for us Perfection is not some intangible level of existence that sounds good in theory but is impossible to achieve in real life Perfection is not only obtainable but it should be our goal as believers God has made divine provision for each of us to become perfect      Seeking God In All Things William Reiser,2004-05-01 The practice of spiritual direction assumes a theology of the Holy Spirit a theology of revelation and of the Church and a theology of prayer Seeking God in All Things explores each of these themes as the underpinnings of spiritual direction and examines what makes the Christian religious experience distinctive Since not every experience of God bears a Christian imprint

William Reiser SJ asks whether and in what way a Christian might be able to assist someone who is not Christian in developing his or her interior life. This question looks beyond suggesting the concrete steps a person might take in initiating, nurturing, and solidifying a way of praying. It looks rather toward the fundamental issue of helping others as they discover and deepen their relationship to the mystery of God. Chapters are: It Is God Who Directs; Imagining Divine Action in Human Lives; Where Do Holy Desires Come From; What's Distinctive About the Christian Religious Experience; Further Elements of Christian Distinctiveness; The Incarnation as a Starting Point for Spiritual Direction; and Should Christian Spirituality Move Beyond Jesus? William Reiser SJ, PhD, is a professor of theology in the religious studies department at Holy Cross College, Worcester, Massachusetts. Over the past twelve years, he has also served as an associate staff member at the Center for Religious Development in Cambridge. He is the author of Jesus in Solidarity with His People, published by Liturgical Press.
