Searching For Vietnam Selected Writings On Vietnamese Culture And Society:

Searching for Vietnam A. Terry Rambo, 2005 Volume 9 of the Kyoto Area Studies on Asia brings together the author's selected writings about Vietnam from the past forty years. The book opens with an autobiographical account of his history as a Vietnam researcher that sets each of the selections into the context of the time and situation in which it was written. The writings are grouped into five topical sections: cultural history, religion, and cultural ecology; the Vietnamese village; the impact of the war on South Vietnamese society; Vietnam's development prospects in its reform period; and problems of development in Vietnam's mountains.

Vietnamese Stories for Language Learners Tri C. Tran, Tram Le, 2017-12-19 Vietnamese Stories for Language Learners is a language learning experience for beginner to intermediate students of the Vietnamese language. Nothing introduces students and cultural enthusiasts to a language and people better than stories. Intended for Vietnamese language students or heritage learners, the stories in this volume present the everyday vocabulary and grammar in use in Vietnam today. Forty folk stories have been edited and simplified for learning purposes and are presented in parallel Vietnamese and English versions to facilitate language learning. These delightful Vietnamese folktales immediately animate the culture, offering readers a glimpse of the social, cultural, and religious aspects of Vietnamese society in bygone eras. The English translations allow readers who are not yet studying the language to experience the wisdom and humor in these traditional, well-loved stories. Online audio recordings in Vietnamese help students improve their pronunciation and inflection and introduce readers to the uniquely Vietnamese story of storytelling. Discussion questions, vocabulary, and cultural notes are provided at the end of each story. All media content is accessible on the Tuttle Publishing website.

State-Society Interaction in Vietnam Huynh Thi Phuong Linh, 2016 This book, based on anthropological research on local irrigation management in the Mekong Delta, sheds light on state-society interactions at the interface between bureaucratic and informal areas. Data from ethnographic case studies was framed abductively by an institutional bricolage approach (Cleaver 2012) and state power (Goebel 2011). The study goes beyond an institution's process and individual bargaining to argue that local irrigation management is guided by the co-evolution between the state and local actors. It is the everyday dialogue that, in the co-existence of the hierarchical state management structure and the space of local flexibility, officially and unofficially refines the local practices. Series: ZEF Development Studies Vol. 29 Subject: Politics, Environmental Studies, Asian Studies, Agriculture.

Reforming Vietnamese Higher Education Nhai Thi Nguyen, Ly Thi Tran, 2019-11-01 This book deepens readers' conceptual understanding of and provides practical insights into Vietnam's higher education reforms. Globalisation has had profound impacts on higher education worldwide, creating transnational linkages and junctures as well as disjunctures. At the same time, it has generated fluidities, hybridities, and mobilities Within the postcolonial context of Vietnam it is imperative to identify the unique global traits that characterise the Vietnamese higher education system The book focuses specifically on key aspects of culture and values that are decisive to the reform of Vietnamese higher education under the forces of globalisation It critically examines how global forces have shaped and reshaped Vietnam's higher education landscape At the same time the book explores local demands on Vietnamese higher education and deciphers how higher education institutions are responding to globalisation internationalisation and local demands Based on empirical research theoretical approaches and the experiences of researchers from Vietnam and overseas it addresses critical perspectives on the aspects fundamental to the reform of Vietnamese higher education and outlines viable paths for the future Bangsa and Umma Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2011

Having experienced a large scale reorganization of social order over the past decade people of the Malay world have struggled to position themselves They have been classified and have classified themselves with categories as bangsa nation ethnic group and umma Islamic network In connection with these key concepts this study explores a variety of dimensions of these and other people grouping classifications which also include Malayu Jawi and Paranakan The book examines how these categories played a significant part in the colonial and post colonial periods in areas ranging from Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines It demonstrates the extent to which shifting social conditions interact with the contours of group identity This is a collaborative work by scholars based in the US Japan Malaysia and Australia Understanding the genealogy of people grouping concepts provides valuable insight into the mechanics of power relations and how the agency of cultural identification constructs the continuity and the contentious in the political world Pacific Affairs Vol 85 No 4 December 2012

Politics of Ethnic Classification in Vietnam Masako Itō, 2013 Officially the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has a total of 54 ethnic groups including the majority Kinh and 53 ethnic minority groups This book examines the history of the ethnic group determination process highlighting some of the challenges the official policies pose to both the state and the affected peoples Vietnam has proudly embraced its multiethnic identity seeking the equality of all ethnic groups in the interests of national unity Yet among other things it appears that the total number of ethnic categories was rather arbitrarily determined initially and then fiercely defended by influential politicians and academics Furthermore the extensive field surveys reveal that ethnic policies are frequently manipulated at the regional and local levels in pursuit of economic interests and not infrequently to the detriment of those they were intended to benefit Series Kyoto Area Studies on Asia Vol 23 Professor Ito has succeeded admirably in juxtaposing her study of official documents interviews with officials and academics and the results of her own excellent first hand field work to demonstrate why ethnic classification in Vietnam has been far more a political than a scientific project Her book deserves to be read not only by those interested in Vietnam but also by others interested in the politics of ethnicity more generally Pacific Affairs Vol 87 No 4 December 2014 Gods, Heroes, and Ancestors Anh Q. Tran, 2018 Though a minority religion in Vietnam Christianity has been a significant presence in the country since its arrival in the sixteenth century Anh Q Tran offers the first English translation of the recently discovered 1752 manuscript Tam Gi o Chu Vong The Errors of the Three Religions Structured as a dialogue between a Christian priest and a Confucian scholar this anonymously authored manuscript paints a rich picture of the three traditional Vietnamese religions Confucianism Buddhism and Daoism The work explains and evaluates several religious beliefs customs and rituals of eighteenth century Vietnam many of which are still in practice today In addition it contains a trove of information on the challenges and struggles that Vietnamese Christian converts had to face in following the new faith Besides its great historical value for studies in Vietnamese religion language and culture Gods Heroes and Ancestors raises complex issues concerning the encounter between Christianity and other religions Christian missions religious pluralism and interreligious dialogue

The Reinvention of Distinction Van Nguyen-Marshall, Lisa B. Welch Drummond, Danièle Bélanger, 2011-11-17 This pioneering collection brings together an international group of scholars to explore the Vietnamese middle class From the leisure pursuits of the colonial middle class to the impact of the new urban rich on landscape of the countryside this interdisciplinary volume explores the ways in which middle classness has been practiced in a wide range of contexts throughout the 20th century and into the 21st In addition to offering insights into how middle classness was and is constituted and negotiated this collection illuminates the cultural and social conditions of two distinctive periods in Vietnamese history Three historical chapters consider how middle class status was experienced and displayed under French colonialism and in 1960s republican Vietnam These chapters offer examinations of middle classness through recreation consumption and associational life Six contemporary studies examine the modes of experimentation and practice within middle class urban Vietnam Still a sensitive topic politically the contemporary middle class nascent but increasingly powerful is exerting a strong impact on the shape of contemporary society and culture as well as on urban and rural landscapes This volume offers a series of studies which critically interrogate the practices of those who engage in or aspire to urban middle class lifestyles in Vietnam both in the past and in the present

Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia Nam-Kook Kim, 2016-04-15 Globalization and increased migration have brought both new opportunities and new tensions to traditional East Asian societies Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia draws together a wide range of distinguished local scholars to discuss multiculturalism and the changing nature of social identity in East Asia Regional specialists review specific events and situations in China Korea Japan Thailand Vietnam Singapore Taiwan Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines to provide a focus on life as it is lived at the local level whilst also tracing macro discourses on the national issues affected by multiculturalism and identity The contributors look at the uneven multicultural development across these different countries and how to bridge the gap between locality and universality They examine how ethnic majorities and minorities can achieve individual rights exert civic responsibility and explain how to construct a deliberative framework to make sustainable democracy possible This book considers the emergence of a new cross national network
