Sanctions and the Search for Security David Cortright, George A. Lopez, Linda Gerber, International Peace Academy, 2002 Cortright and Lopez both of the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies U of Notre Dame follow up on their earlier work The Sanctions Decade by examining some of the UN changes in sanctions design since 1999 and suggesting that still further changes need to be carried out Noting that it has now become evident that the full scale strangulation of a national economy fails to produce political compliance Recent sanctions against the Taliban in Afghanistan and the Taylor government in Liberia are seen as a laudable refinement but a move from seeing sanctions as solely a punishment towards seeing them as also a form of persuasion is recommended Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Malici, 2016-01-05 When Kissinger lamented When I want to call Europe I cannot find a phone number the implication was clear Since then the momentum of the EU towards a common foreign and security policy has increased Yet the viability of this institutionalization effort is questionable This book advances a new perspective on this paradox In Search of a Post-Cold War Security Structure Gregory D. Foster, 1996-11 Contents doing hard time in psychic prison stumbling blind into the future bowing to the organizational imperative old war thinking cold war organization changed strategic environment unchanged security structure a general failure of performance the imperatives for reform the elements of a revamped structure and afterword bowing to futility Extensive notes For Security Personnel, CONDUCTING SUSPECT SEARCHES, 2020 Mürsel Sevindik, 2020-04-16 This book covers Suspect Searching issues for law enforcement officer The goal for officers to understand and be able to perform proper techniques of searching a subject and escorting him to a designated area A search is a careful systematic examination of the suspect's person at the scene of a crime or immediately after apprehension Body searching is a vague subject It is very difficult to perform in a proper and effective way In body searching there is close contact between the officer and suspect Being in such close contact sometimes creates a critical situation Everyone placed under arrest must be searched There should be no exceptions to this rule Failure to conduct a proper search could cost an officer s or civilians life Generally there is no legal distinction between searching and handcuffing a man or a woman Gender should not be an inhibiting factor in the application of proper techniques However these techniques should be tempered with the individual officer s good judgment Police officers should not confuse the object of the search with the application of the search technique A cooperative suspect should not lull the police officer into a false sense of security The suspect s attitude is no guarantee that they will not attempt to escape when such an opportunity presents itself Topics and techniques presented in this book will be of both great interest and great value to trainers and students of law enforcement
