Searchings Barbara Bordnick,2002 Searchings ,2004-04-01 In Searchings Secret Landscapes of Flowers Volume II photographer Barbara Bordnick continues a journey she began when she idly turned her new camera on a few flowers she had in her studio At the time she had no particular purpose other than to see what the results would be As she put it in a recent interview To me photographing flowers was a sign that retirement was just around the corner Two years later following the 2003 publication of Searchings her first volume of flower photographs Bordnick now acknowledges that photographing flowers was meant to be In this second volume of her work she enters a new stage in the evolution of her unique relationship to her subject On the one hand she has equipped herself with the newer more technically superior camera On the other she has over the course of this work refined her perception of what is at heart a flower s basic nature its infinite variety of being Reflected through the lens of her camera the images are as much about this perception and the photographer s sense of her own existence as they are about the flowers themselves As Bordnick describes it My photos have nothing to do with describing flowers The photographs have to do with an emotional experience and a personal voyage

John Cowper Powys in Search of a Landscape C.A. Coates, 1982-06-18 Haunted Landscapes Ruth Heholt, Niamh Downing, 2016-11-17

Haunted Landscapes offers a fresh and innovative approach to contemporary debates about landscape and the supernatural. Landscapes are often uncanny spaces embroiled in the past associated with absence, memory and nostalgia. Yet experiences of haunting must in some way always belong to the present; they must be felt. This collection of essays opens up new and compelling areas of debate around the concepts of haunting, affect and landscape. Landscape studies, supernatural studies, haunting and memory are all rapidly growing fields of enquiry and this book synthesises ideas from several critical approaches: spectral, affective and spatial, to provide a new route into these subjects. Examining urban and rural landscapes, haunted domestic spaces, landscapes of trauma and borderlands, this collection of essays is designed to cross disciplines and combine seemingly disparate academic approaches under the coherent locus of landscape and haunting. Presenting a timely intervention in some of the most pressing scholarly debates of our time, Haunted Landscapes offers an attractive array of essays that cover topics from Victorian times to the present.

In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower Marcel Proust, 2015-10-13

Edited and annotated by leading Proust scholar William Carter. In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower is the second volume of one of the twentieth century's great literary triumphs. It was this volume that won the Prix Goncourt in 1919, affirming Proust as a major literary figure and dramatically increasing his fame. Here the narrator, whose childhood was reflected in Swann's Way, moves further through childhood and into adolescence as the author brilliantly examines themes of love and youth in settings in Paris and by the sea in Normandy. The reader again encounters Swann, now married to his former mistress and largely fallen from high society, and meets for the first time several of Proust's most memorable characters: the handsome dashing Robert de Saint-Loup, who will become the narrator's best friend; the enigmatic Albertine, leader of the little band of adolescent girls; the profoundly artistic Elstir, believed to be Proust's composite of Whistler, Monet and other leading painters; and making his unforgettable entrance near the end of the volume, the intense, indelible Baron de Charlus, permeated by the bloom of youth and its resonances in memories of love and friendship. In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower takes readers into the heart of Proust's comic and poetic genius. As with Swann's Way, Carter uses C. K. Scott Moncrieff's beloved translation as the basis for this annotated and fully revised edition. Carter corrects long-standing errors in Scott Moncrieff's otherwise superlative translation, bringing it closer than ever to the spirit and style of Proust's original text and reaching English readers in a way that the Pléiade annotations cannot. Insightful and accessible, Carter's edition of Marcel Proust's masterwork will be the go-to text for generations of readers seeking to understand Proust's remarkable bygone world.

Of Gardens Paula Deitz, 2011-11-29

Paula Deitz has delighted readers for more than thirty years with her vivid descriptions of both famous and hidden landscapes. Her writings allow readers to share in the experience of her extensive travels from the waterways of Britain's Castle Howard to the Japanese gardens of Kyoto and home again to New York City's Central Park. Collected for the first time, the essays in Of Gardens record her great adventure of continual discovery not only of the artful beauty of individual gardens but also of the intellectual and historical threads that weave them into patterns of civilization from the modest garden for family subsistence to major urban developments. Deitz's essays describe how people over many centuries and in many lands have expressed their originality by devoting themselves to cultivation and conservation. During a visit to the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Garden in Seal Harbor, Maine, Deitz first came to appreciate the notion that landscape architecture can be as intricately conceived as any major structure and is indeed the means by which we redeem the natural environment through design. Years later, as she wandered through the gardens of Versailles, she realized that because gardens give structure without confinement, they encourage a liberation of movement and thought. In Of Gardens, we follow Deitz down paths of revelation, viewing A Bouquet of British Parks, Liverpool, Edinburgh, and London; the parks and promenades of Jerusalem; the Moonlight Garden of the Taj Mahal; a Tuscan style villa in southern California; and the rooftop garden at Tokyo's Mori Center, among many other sites. Deitz covers individual landscape architects and designers, including André Le Nôtre, Frederick Law Olmsted, Beatrix Farrand, Russell Page, and Michael Van Valkenburgh. She then features an array of parks, public places, and gardens before turning her attention to the burgeoning business of flower shows. The volume concludes with a memorable poetic epilogue entitled "A Winter Garden of Yellow."
