Postcolonial Thought in the French Speaking World Charles Forsdick, David Murphy, 2022-04-01 In the late 1990 s Postcolonial Studies risked imploding as a credible area of academic enquiry Repeated anthologization and an overemphasis on the English language literatures led to sustained critiques of the field and to an active search for alternative approaches to the globalized and transnational formations of the post colonial world In the early twenty first century however postcolonial began to reveal a new openness to its comparative dimensions French language contributors to postcolonial debate such as Edouard Glissant and Abdelkebir Khatibi have recently risen to greater prominence in the English speaking world and there have also appeared an increasing number of important critical and theoretical texts on postcolonial issues written by scholars working principally on French language material It is to such a context that this book responds Acknowledging these shifts this volume provides an essential tool for students and scholars outside French departments seeking a way into the study of Francophone colonial postcolonial debates At the same time it supplies scholars in French with a comprehensive overview of essential ideas and key intellectuals in this area

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

This is the Canon Joan Anim-Addo, Deirdre Osborne, Kadija Sesay, 2021-10-28 A vital and timely introduction to some of the best books I ve ever read Perfectly curated and filled with brilliant literature Nikesh Shukla The ultimate introduction to post colonial literature for those who want to understand the classics and the pioneers in this exciting area of books Symeon Brown These are the books you should read This is the canon Joan Anim Addo Deirdre Osborne and Kadija Sesay have curated a decolonized reading list that celebrates the wide and diverse experiences of people from around the world of all backgrounds and all races It disrupts the all too often white dominated required reading collections that have become the accepted norm and highlights powerful voices and cultural perspectives that demand a place on our shelves From literary giants such as Toni Morrison and Chinua Achebe to less well known but equally vital writers such as Caribbean novelist Earl Lovelace or Indigenous Australian author Tony Birch the novels recommended here are in turn haunting and lyrical innovative and inspiring edgy and poignant The power of great fiction is that readers have the opportunity to discover new worlds and encounter other beliefs and opinions This is the Canon offers a rich and multifaceted perspective on our past present and future which deserves to be read by all bibliophiles whether they are book club members or solitary readers self educators or teachers

The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2011-09-14 In the age of globalization the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in World Literature including gender politics and ethics a global perspective on the politics of World Literature The forty eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field

Crossing the Mangrove Maryse Conde, 2011-03-02 In this beautifully crafted Rashomon like novel Maryse Conde has written a gripping story imbued with all the nuances and traditions of Caribbean culture Francis Sancher a handsome outsider loved by some and reviled by others is found dead face down in the mud on a path outside Riviere au Sel a small village in Guadeloupe None of the villagers are particularly surprised since Sancher a secretive and melancholy man had often predicted an unnatural death for himself As the villagers come to pay their respects they each either in a speech to the mourners or in an internal monologue reveal another piece of the mystery behind Sancher's life and death Like pieces of an elaborate puzzle their memories interlock to create a rich and intriguing portrait of a man and a community In the lush and vivid prose for which she has become famous Conde has constructed a Guadeloupean wake for Francis Sancher Retaining the full color and vibrance of Conde's homeland Crossing the Mangrove pays homage to Guadeloupe in both subject and structure

What's a Black Critic to Do II Donna Bailey Nurse, 2011 In What's a Black Critic to Do II literary critic Donna Bailey Nurse once again gathers together profiles reviews interviews and essays that examine race culture and multiculturalism through the lens of literature This collection featuring well known writers such as Lawrence Hill Afua Cooper Christopher Paul Curtis Natasha Trethewey Toni Morrison David Chariandy Joseph Boyden and Kwame Dawes What's a Black Critic to Do II is of especial interest to black readers as well as teachers librarians and book clubs This companion to 2003's What's a Black Critic to Do constitutes a candid conversation about race in an ostensibly post racial world

What Women Lose María Cristina Rodríguez, 2005 This book examines novels by women from the anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean that focus on marginalized female characters who migrate to metropolitan centers The novels studied require cultural historical sociological anthropological and geographic readings to fully explore the complexity of the characters as they confront the varied and changing challenges hardships and pleasures of the diaspora The critical approach focuses on the characters attempts to hold on to acceptable realities by assuming the appropriate interpersonal social and cultural masks that allow them to find a sense of significance in their interior domestic and community lives

Colonizer and Colonized ,2021-11-08 Over the last two decades the experiences of colonization and decolonization once safely relegated to the margins of what occupied students of history and literature have shifted into the latter s center of attention in the West as elsewhere This attention does not restrict itself to the historical dimension of colonization and decolonization but also focuses upon their impact upon the present for both colonizers and colonized The nearly fifty essays here gathered examine how literature now and in the past keeps and has kept alive the experiences both individual and collective of colonization and decolonization The contributors to this volume hail from the four corners of the earth East and West North and South The authors discussed range from international luminaries past and present such as Aphra Behn Racine Blaise Cendrars Salman Rushdie Graham Greene Derek Walcott Guimar es Rosa J M Coetzee Andr Brink and Assia Djebar to less known but certainly not lesser authors like Gioconda Belli Ren Depestre Amadou Kon Elisa Chimenti Sapho Arthur Nortje Es kia Mphahlele Mark Behr Viktor Paskov Evelyn Wilwert and Le la Houari Issues addressed include the role of travel writing in forging images of foreign lands for domestic consumption the reception and translation of Western classics in the East the impact of contemporary Chinese cinema upon both native and Western audiences and the use of Western generic novel conventions in modern Egyptian literature

Reading Erna Brodber June E. Roberts,2006-03-30 June Roberts explores the complicated post colonial infrastructure of Caribbean society and life as an African American through the work of Erna Brodber Brodber s novels Jane and Louisa Will Soon Come Home MYAL and Louisiana all explore various facets of the Caribbean and African American experiences and Roberts greatly adds to their value through her commentary and interpretation While she uses Erna Brodber s books organizing themes as a home base Roberts doesn t limit her work to strict criticism and analysis of the novels Instead she traces countless issues as varied as the nuances of the Caribbean psyche the importance of matriarchs traditional slave dances obeahs Santeria and other African based religious expressions as well as politics and history and the perspectives of past and present scholars of the Caribbean and African American experience Most importantly Roberts investigates how the colonial system s exploitation and dehumanization of the black people affected their spirits This text is broad enough to appeal to all enthusiasts of Caribbean and African American topics and it can especially benefit academic courses related to these topics

Maryse Condé, a Writer for Our Times Madeleine Dobie,Kaiama L. Glover,2022-01-04 A diverse interdisciplinary collection of essays exploring what makes Maryse Condé a writer for our times In 2018 the New Academy selected Guadeloupean writer scholar and teacher of literature Maryse Condé as the recipient of the 2018 Alternative Nobel Prize in Literature. This volume of Yale French Studies examines Condé's work and legacy, exploring why a diverse group of journalists, critics, and lay readers selected her as the writer most deserving of the prize. Varied in their themes, forms, and disciplinary groundings, the essays consider how Condé's novels, plays, essays, and memoirs have engaged with many of the urgent social, economic, and political issues of the late twentieth and twenty-first centuries, often anticipating and catalyzing public debates. Written by scholars from Africa, the Antilles, South America, France, and the United States, the essays consider Condé's unique voice and the ways in which her writing speaks to readers all over the world, making her a writer for our times.
