Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1920      Jesus—The Portrait and Inscription of God George Paki, If we want to understand what God was telling John about the future we need to first understand what John understood Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA In Jesus The Portrait and Inscription of God the author pours his years of research into addressing the issue that Jon Paulien highlights Paki builds an intriguing case for a dual focused method of interpreting Revelation He uses this method to show i that Revelation was written primarily to John and his initial audience ii that the same prophecies also speak to us with clarity and force iii Then he wonders if God intentionally used the same material to speak to an audience then and now When this method is applied to Revelation 1 3 the text does come alive Deep theological truths and nuggets extracted are way too many to recount in a single book In fact this fresh approach minimizes most of our interpretive issues and enhances our understanding and appreciation of the apocalyptic Christ Some of our leading scholars agree It is well written well laid out and has good solid biblical insights Good solid evidence for Revelation s high Christology Dr Kayle de Waal Avondale College Australia I found it thoughtful helpful and interesting to read The style of presentation is also very attractive Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA You have clearly shown the relationship between Revelation 1 3 with the rest of Revelation Dr Ross Cole Avondale College Australia The method used its interpretations and the theological insights are corroborated by other Johannine books the New Testament the Old Testament and the Spirit of Prophecy This volume will enhance the libraries of academics and laypeople alike      A Catalogue of Books in English

Partridge,1903      Early Christian Authors on Samaritans and Samaritanism Reinhard Pummer,2002 Samaritanism is an outgrowth of Early Judaism that has survived until today Its origin as a separate religious entity can be traced back to the 2nd 1st centuries B C E Samaritans were found not only in their core area in and around Shechem Neapolis modern Nablus and on neighboring Mount Gerizim but also in other parts of Palestine as well as in various other Mediterranean countries Oppression at the hand of Jews Christians and Muslims decimated the Samaritan population and obliterated all Samaritan manuscripts written prior to the 10th 11th centuries C E For the early period of Samaritanism we must therefore rely on Christian authors Reinhard Pummer edits Christian Greek and Latin texts about Samaritans and their beliefs and practices dating from the second century C E to the Arab conquests The passages are quoted in their original language and translated into English In addition they are commented on and analyzed in view of their significance for our knowledge of Samaritanism within the wider framework of early Judaism and Christianity      Sale Catalogues American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),inc American art association Aderson galleries,1922      Reconceptions in Philosophy and Other Arts and Sciences Nelson Goodman,Catherine Z. Elgin,1988-01-01
The authors argue against certain philosophical distinctions between art and science between verbal and nonverbal meaning and between the affective and the cognitive The book continues Goodman s argument against one traditional mode of philosophizing which privileges the notions of truth and knowledge Hence the book is in a broadly pragmatic tradition It also deals in detail with such topics as meaning in architecture and the concept of variation in art and contains a superb critique of some important views in contemporary epistemology This work will be savored even by those who will not accept all aspects of Goodman and Elgin s approach Essential for all undergraduate philosophy collections Stanley Bates Choice
