Monty's Turn Monty Panesar, 2012-03-01 It's hard to believe MONTY PANESAR only arrived on the international cricketing scene in March 2006 His electric performances against India and in the Ashes series saw him catapulted to hero status in a matter of months and widely rated as England's best spin bowler for 30 years In MONTY'S TURN Panesar takes a look at his extraordinary rise to stardom Taught spin bowling by a friend of his father Hitu Naik his first experience of league cricket was with the Luton Town and Indians CC His raw talent and utter dedication to his craft as a bowler soon saw him signed to Northamptonshire before he had completed his degree at Loughborough Since his call up to the England senior squad Panesar's life has been a whirlwind of headlines and hero worship The national outcry that met his exclusion from the first two Ashes Tests placed the weight of a despondent England's expectations on his comparatively inexperienced shoulders but Panesar responded to the pressure with a scorching performance. Famously the first Sikh to represent a nation other than India in Test cricket, Monty credits his religion for his discipline in the nets and it is this dedication along with his scintillating talent and unique celebration style that have made him a national treasure. He has declared his ambition to be the best and it would seem that now it truly is time for MONTY'S TURN.

The Race to Be Myself Young Readers Edition Caster Semenya, 2024-05-28 A New York Public Library Best Book of 2024 A School Library Journal Best Book of 2024 In this memoir for young readers, Olympic champion runner Caster Semenya reflects on her groundbreaking career and her fight for identity in professional sports. Caster Semenya is a two-time Olympic gold medalist and a three-time world champion in track from South Africa. Since her first spectacular performance at the 2009 World Championship in Berlin, she has been at the center of a growing debate about female eligibility rules in professional athletics because of her naturally high testosterone levels. After she was forced to take devastating hormone-altering drugs in order to continue competing, this debate has moved to center stage in the future of inclusivity for professional athletes. In this middle-grade adaptation of her debut adult memoir, Caster recounts her childhood growing up in a small village in South Africa, the love for and acceptance of her identity from her community and her trailblazing fight for the right to compete in professional sports. The Race to Be Myself is an illuminating and necessary story of identity and self-acceptance that will resonate with young readers.
