Handbook of Research on the Impact of Culture in Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding Essien, Essien, 2020-03-20 The contemporary conflict scenarios are beyond the reach of standardized approaches to conflict resolution Given the curious datum that culture is implicated in nearly every conflict in the world culture can also be an important aspect of efforts to transform destructive conflicts into more constructive social processes Yet what culture is and how culture matters in conflict scenarios is contested and regrettably unexplored The Handbook of Research on the Impact of Culture in Conflict Prevention and Peacebuilding is a critical publication that examines cultural differences in conflict resolution based on various aspects of culture such as morals traditions and laws Highlighting a wide range of topics such as criminal justice politics and technological development this book is essential for educators social scientists sociologists political leaders government officials academicians conflict resolution practitioners world peace organizations researchers and students

SlutWalk K. Mendes, 2015-06-30 SlutWalk explores representations of the global anti rape movement of the same name in mainstream news and feminist blogs around the world It reveals strategies and practices used to adapt the movement to suit local cultures and contexts and explores how social media organized theorized and publicized this contemporary feminist campaign

Walls and Bridges Anthony J. Cortese, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2004 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association This useful classroom resource for professors wishing to incorporate notions of justice into their courses examines a variety of America s most challenging social issues education poverty homelessness crime and health care interwoven with racial and ethnic themes Anthony J Cortese illustrates how the tension between moral relativism on the one hand and universal ethics on the other makes concrete policy discussion difficult He illustrates how through a synthesis of justice law and power a social ethics approach to public policy could resolve various intergroup conflicts and social problems Included at the end of each chapter are What You Can Do exercises and activities that encourage students to apply what they have learned to their own lives

Singapore Malay/Muslim Community, 1819-2015 Hussin Mutalib, Rokiah Mentol, Sundusia Rosdi, 2016-06-29 Singapore s Malay Muslim community constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive encompassing the different sources of information print or non print about the many facets of life of the Republic s Malays Muslims such as education economy politics culture history health language religion arts and more The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive if not exhaustive treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere Scholars and researchers in particular and the public in general should find this Bibliography a highly valuable indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore's Malay Muslim community stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today The Editors Hussin Mutalib Ph D a senior academic with the National University of Singapore Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi former senior librarians with Singapore's National Library Board are assisted by professional and experienced librarians

The Sociology of Shari'a: Case Studies from around the World Adam Possamai, James T Richardson, Bryan S. Turner, 2014-12-04 This edited volume offers a collection of papers that present a comparative analysis of the development of Shari'a in countries with Muslim minorities such as America Australia Germany and Italy as well as countries with Muslim majorities such as Malaysia Bangladesh Turkey and Tunisia The Sociology of Shari'a provides a global analysis of these important legal transformations and analyzes the topic from a sociological perspective It explores examples of non Western countries that have a Muslim minority in their populations including South Africa China Singapore and the Philippines In addition the third part of the book includes case studies that explore some ground breaking theories on the sociology of Shari'a such as the application of Black Chabbliss and Eisenstein's sociological perspectives
