Signs of Murder David Wilson, 2020-07-16 From the UK's leading criminologist comes the true story of Margaret McLaughlin and the man he believes was fitted up for her murder. Entrhralling will leave true crime readers with more to ponder than they bargained for. The Herald Before David Wilson became the UK's pre eminent criminologist he was just a young boy growing up in the Scottish town of Carluke. When he was a child the brutal murder of a young woman rocked this small community but very quickly a man was arrested for the crime convicted and put behind bars. For most life slowly carried on case closed. But there were whispers in the town that the wrong man was imprisoned. Over the years these whispers grew louder to the point that any time David would visit he'd be asked in hushed tones "What are you going to do about the Carluke Case?" Carluke believed the real killer had evaded justice. A murderer was still on the loose. Forty years later it's time for David to return home and find out the truth.

Signs of the Signs William Brevda, 2011-05-16 This book is a study of signs in American literature and culture. It is mainly about electric signs but also deals with non electric signs and related phenomena such as movie sets. The sign is considered in both the architectural and semiotic senses of the word. It is argued that the drama and spectacle of the electric sign called attention to the semiotic implications of the sign. In fiction poetry and commentary the electric sign became a sign of manifold meanings that this book explores: a sign of the city, a sign of America, a sign of the twentieth century, a sign of modernism, a sign of postmodernism, a sign of noir, a sign of naturalism, a sign of the beats, a sign of signs systems, the Bible to Broadway, a sign of tropes, the Great White way to the neon jungle, a sign of the writers themselves, a sign of the sign itself. If Moby Dick is the great American novel then it is also the great American novel about signs as the prologue maintains. The chapters that follow demonstrate that the sign is indeed a sign of American literature. After the electric sign was invented it influenced Stephen Crane to become a nightlight impressionist and Theodore Dreiser to make the fire sign his metaphor for the city. An actual Broadway sign might have inspired F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby. In Manhattan Transfer and U.S.A. John Dos Passos portrayed America as just a spectacular sign. William Faulkner's electric signs are full of sound and fury signifying modernity. The Last Tycoon was a sign of Fitzgerald's decline. The signs of noir can be traced to Poe's The Man of the Crowd. Absence flickers in the neons of Raymond Chandler's Los Angeles. The death of God haunts the neon wilderness of Nelson Algren. Hitler's empire was a non intentional parody of Nathanael West's California. The beats reinvented Times Square in their own image. Jack Kerouac's search for the center of Saturday night was a quest for transcendence.
