The piano accompaniment is written for a grand piano with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The score consists of four systems of music. The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking and includes a performance instruction: 'Play R.H. cues in absence of brass; play L.H. cues if brass is used.' The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving bass lines. The second system continues the melodic development in the right hand. The third system shows a more active right hand with sixteenth-note passages. The fourth system concludes the piece with sustained chords in both hands, marked with a fermata. Measure numbers 4, 7, and 10 are indicated at the start of their respective systems.
