the post Emancipation era Emulation Thomas Crow, Thomas E. Crow, 2006-01-01 This fascinating and elegant book tells the story of five painters at the center of events in Revolutionary France Jacques Louis David and his first cohort of precocious pupils including the meteoric Jean Germain Drouais and the astonishingly gifted but deeply troubled Anne Louis Girodet Written by a major art historian it interprets in a new and original way the relationships between these men and the paintings they created This new edition includes a revised introduction and incorporates the fruit of recent new research

Crow combines excellent formal and stylistic analysis of particular paintings with close attention to the psychological complexities and political and social contexts of the artists' lives. He delves deeply into David's and his students' thematic choices, compositional strategies, and personal relations in order to make his overarching political and aesthetic arguments.

Lynn Hunt, New Republic, A magisterial contribution to the history of art, Richard Cobb, The Spectator, Fragonard, Pierre Rosenberg, 1988

Cubism Emily Braun, Rebecca A. Rabinow, 2014-10-09 This beautifully illustrated volume tells the story of Cubism through twenty-two essays that explore the most significant private holding of Cubist art in the world today: the Leonard A. Lauder Collection, now a promised gift to The Metropolitan Museum of Art. The eighty works featured in this volume by Georges Braque, Juan Gris, Fernand Léger, and Pablo Picasso are among the most important and visually arresting in the movement's history. These masterpieces critical to the development of Cubism include such groundbreaking paintings as Braque's Trees at L'Estaque, considered one of the very first Cubist pictures; Picasso's Still Life with Fan; Léger's Inde, one of the first to introduce typography; Gris's Noirish, uncanny; The Man at the Café, one of his most celebrated collages; and Léger's uniquely ambitious Composition: The Typographer. Written by renowned experts on this subject, the essays trace the evolution of Cubism from its origins in the still lifes, portraits, and collages of Braque and Picasso through the precisely delineated compositions by Gris that prefigure the Synthetic Cubism of the war years to Léger's distinctive intersections of spherical, cylindrical, and cubic forms that evoke the syncopated rhythms of modern life. Also included are a fascinating interview in which Leonard Lauder discusses his approach to collecting, an investigative essay on the information gleaned from the backs of the works themselves, and an authoritative catalogue that further establishes the lives of these magnificent objects. A publication to place alongside the great histories of Modernism, this comprehensive book will stand as the resource for understanding Cubism for many years to come.

Abstract Bodies, David J. Getsy, 2015-11-03

Original and theoretically astute, Abstract Bodies is the first book to apply the interdisciplinary field of transgender studies to the discipline of art history. It recasts debates around abstraction and figuration in 1960s art through a discussion of gender's mutability and multiplicity. In that decade, sculpture purged representation and figuration but continued to explore the human as an implicit reference. Even as the statue and the figure were left behind, artists and critics asked how the human and particularly gender and sexuality related to abstract sculptural objects that refused the human form. This book examines abstract sculpture in the 1960s that came to propose unconventional and open accounts of bodies, persons, and genders. Drawing on transgender and queer theory, David J. Getsy offers innovative and archivally rich new interpretations of artworks by and critical writing about four major artists: Dan Flavin (1933-1996), Nancy Grossman (b. 1940), John Chamberlain (1927-2011), and David Smith (1906-1965). Abstract Bodies makes a case for abstraction as a resource in reconsidering gender's multiple capacities and offers an ambitious contribution to this burgeoning interdisciplinary field Sultan Ibrahim Mirza's Haft Awrang Marianna Shreve Simpson, Marianna Simpson-Shreve, Massumeh Farhad, 1997-01-01 Simpson explores the production purpose and meaning of the Haft awrang Seven Thrones providing historical documentation about its princely patron and artists and analysing its contents She focuses in particular on the iconography of the seven poems Cultural Convergence in the Northern Qi Period Suzanne G. Valenstein, 2007 French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Masterworks from the Musée Des Beaux-arts, Lille Musée des Beaux Arts (Lille, France), 1992
