Loser Take All The Comic Art Of Woody Allen:

Loser Take All Maurice Yacowar, 1979 New edition the first edition was published by Ungar in 1979 of a major criticism of Allen Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Analysis of Woody Allen's Short Story "Sam You Made the Pants Too Fragrant" Hülya Akkaç, 2010-03 Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject Communications Miscellaneous grade 2 0 University of Siegen course Mere Anarchy Woody Allen Films language English abstract Woody Allen born Allen Stewart Konigsberg is a Jewish artist who is mostly known as filmmaker but he carries several faces and puts his work into several fields Although his movies often seem to deal with the same topics Allen never concentrates on only one genre as we worked out during our seminar and the expert sessions Besides his widely spread image of the intellectual and humorous filmmaker he put his thoughts into prose and stand up comedy too he wrote articles for magazines like New York Times Playboy or The New Republic and of course he is known through his roles in his own films By acting out his own roles he has written Woody Allen as the private person and the public known Woody Allen somehow melted together so the viewer can find more personal elements in Allen's movies as he or she may expect Or better said he by some means performed himself through the stories of his films Besides the fact that Allen mostly acted out the role of the protagonist in his movies and barring that the topics of the movies seem to be repetitive there are other typical elements that continuously appear in his movies what in this paper as it already have been in our expert session will be depicted as allenesque elements These are for instance the neurotic characters the Jewishness that apparently refers to his private persona the psycho analysis the fusion of reality and fiction unhappy relationships love affairs and the element of the anxious behavior towards special issues of some of his characters are just a number of the main subjects that are typical of Woody Allen stories But Allen's audience is not only confronted with these topics in his movies as already mentioned he also developed his ideas in prose and short stories With his book Mere Ana The Reluctant Film Art of Woody Allen Peter J. Bailey, 2016-05-27 For five decades no American filmmaker has been as prolific or as paradoxical as Woody Allen From Play It Again Sam 1972 to Midnight in Paris 2011 and Blue Jasmine 2013 Allen has produced an average of one film a year yet in many of these movies Allen reveals a progressively skeptical attitude toward both the value of art and the cultural contributions of artists In this second edition Peter J Bailey extends his classic study to consider Allen's work during the twenty first century He illuminates how the director's decision to leave New York to shoot in European cities such as London Paris Rome and Barcelona has affected his craft He also explores Allen's shift toward younger actors and interprets the evolving critical reaction to his films authoritatively demonstrating why the director's lifelong project of moviemaking remains endlessly deserving of careful attention Reconstructing Woody Mary P. Nichols, 1998 For too long the films of Woody Allen have been interpreted as expressions of deconstructionism nihilism and postmodern angst In this pathbreaking new book Mary P Nichols challenges this arguing that Allen's work from Play It Again Sam to Deconstructing Harry is actually an attempt to explore and reconcile the tension between art and life As witty and complex as its subject Reconstructing Woody shows that Allen is immensely concerned with human ethics goodness and virtue

The Films of Woody Allen Charles L.P. Silet, 2006-07-27 From What's Up Tiger Lily to Match Point Woody Allen's work has generated substantial interest among scholars and professionals who have written extensively about the director In The Films of Woody Allen: Critical Essays Charles L P Silet brings together two dozen scholarly articles that address the core of Allen's work from a variety of cultural and theoretical perspectives With a special emphasis on his films of the 1980s this collection includes both general essays that examine various themes and issues encompassed in Allen's repertoire as well as discussions that focus on one or two specific films General essays explore Allen's Jewish background as a religious and cultural facet his apparent love affair with New York City and his relation to various strains of humor particularly American film humor but also Allen's broad use of such traditional comic tropes as irony and parody The essays on individual films include examinations of some of Allen's most significant work including Love and Death Annie Hall Interiors Crimes and Misdemeanors Hannah and Her Sisters Manhattan and Shadows and Fog A number of the articles collected here were originally published in now hard to locate places while others were selected from journals not usually associated with film studies The result is an anthology of essays that presents an overview of the central issues raised by Allen's body of work as well as a close examination of fourteen individual films that convey these larger themes A wide ranging exploration of one of America's most innovative and productive modern directors this book should appeal to both professionals and students of contemporary film comedy
