Lost Daughter:

The Lost Daughter Elena Ferrante, 2008 The author of The Days of Abandonment pens her most compelling and perceptive meditation on womanhood and motherhood yet

Lost Daughter Nola Wunderle, 2013-08-07 Lost Daughter A daughters suffering A mother s unconditional love An extraordinary story of hope and survival We were all full of expectation as we waited patiently at Melbourne s international airport I hadn t slept properly for weeks All of us had been waiting for this moment for months Our fourth child was soon to arrive This is the story of 18 year old Kartya Wunderle one of 64 babies flown out of Taiwan in the early 80s Babies stolen from their mothers or sold by their families and adopted out to unsuspecting overseas parents At 15 Kartya began to use heroin in an attempt to take away the pain of not knowing who she was and where she came from Her distraught parents watched their beautiful daughter slowly slip away from them spiralling towards a tragic and almost inevitable conclusion Out of desperation and fired by an unconditional love for her daughter Nola Wunderle resolved to find Kartya s birth mother and change the ending to Kartya s story An amazing search for one woman in a country of 22 million began The result was nothing short of miraculous and made Kartya a national hero in her homeland Lost Daughter is a moving testament to the power of love and the strength of the human spirit one that will humble and inspire all who read it

A Study Guide for Karin Evans's "The Lost Daughter's of China" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016

Lost Daughters Laurie Alberts, 1999 A novel that turns the traditional adoption narrative on its head as it explores how lies move through generations

The Lost Daughters of China Karin Evans, 2008-10-02 In 1997 journalist Karin Evans walked into an orphanage in southern China and met her new daughter a beautiful one year old baby girl In this fateful moment Evans became part of a profound increasingly common human drama that links abandoned Chinese girls with foreigners who have traveled many miles to complete their families At once a compelling personal narrative and an evocative portrait of contemporary China The Lost Daughters of China has also served as an invaluable guide for thousands of readers as they navigated the process of adopting from China However much has changed in terms of the Chinese government s policies on adoption since this book was originally published and in this revised and updated edition Evans addresses these developments Also new to this edition is a riveting chapter in which she describes her return to China in 2000 to adopt her second daughter who was nearly three at the time Many of the first girls to be adopted from China are now in the teens China only opened its doors to adoption in the 1990s and this edition includes accounts of their experiences growing up in the US and in some cases of returning to China in search of their roots Illuminating the real life stories behind the statistics The Lost Daughters of China is an unforgettable account of the red thread that winds from China s orphanages to loving families around the globe

The Daughter's Way Tanis MacDonald, 2012-09-01 The Daughter s Way investigates negotiations of female subjectivity in twentieth century Canadian women s elegies with a special emphasis on the father s death as a literary and political watershed The book examines the work of Dorothy Livesay P K Page Jay Macpherson

Margaret Atwood Kristjana Gunnars Lola Lemire Tostevin Anne Carson and Erin Mour as elegiac daughteronomies literary artifacts of mourning that grow from the poets investigation into the function and limitations of elegiac convention Some poets treat the father as a metaphor for socio political power while others explore more personal iterations of loss but all the poets in The Daughter's Way seek to redefine daughterly duty in a contemporary context by challenging elegiac tradition through questions of genre and gender Beginning with psychoanalytical theories of filiation inheritance and mourning as they are complicated by feminist challenges to theories of kinship and citizenship The Daughter's Way debates the efficacy of the literary work of mourning in twentieth century Canadian poetry By investigating the way a daughter's filial piety performs and sometimes reconfigures such work and situating melancholia as a creative force in women's elegies the book considers how elegies inquire into the rhetoric of mourning as it is complicated by father daughter kinship

Maternal Connections: Kande Kosior, Joan Garvan, 2022-09-15 This is a wonderful and insightful collection of stories and reflections of mothers on the connection with their own mother after becoming a mother themselves The chapters are primarily autobiographical and are told through a range of lens be it a graphic chapter or the more literary An author outlines Anishinaabeg ceremonial practices that honour and represent maternal connections and others demonstrate how art and craft can both assist in working through and carry forward maternal stories Two further pieces use a combination of literary critique feminist theory and post Freudian psychoanalysis to interpret varied texts and another highlights findings from a series of interviews with women reflecting on the attributes and practices they will carry forward or discard from their experience of being mothered

Elena Ferrante as World Literature Stiliana Milkova Rousseva, 2021-01-14 A model of academic praxis Public Books Elena Ferrante as World Literature is the first English language monograph on Italian writer Elena Ferrante whose four Neapolitan Novels 2011 2014 became a global phenomenon The book proposes that Ferrante constructs a theory of feminine experience which serves as the scaffolding for her own literary practice Drawing on the writer's entire textual corpus to date Stiliana Milkova examines the linguistic psychical and corporeal spatial realities that constitute the female subjects Ferrante has theorized At stake in Ferrante's theory practice is the articulation of a feminine subjectivity that emerges from the structures of patriarchal oppression and that resists bypasses or subverts these very structures Milkova's inquiry proceeds from Ferrante's theory of frantumaglia and smarginatura to explore mechanisms for controlling and containing the female body and mind forms of female authorship and creativity and corporeal negotiations of urban topography and patriarchal space Elena Ferrante as World Literature sets forth an interdisciplinary framework for understanding Ferrante's texts and offers an account of her literary and cultural significance today
