Lost Worlds Anne T. White,1941-01-01      Adventures in Archaeology Anne Terry White,1956      Bulletin United States. Office of Education,1942      Art, History, and Postwar Fiction Kevin Brazil,2018-10-18 Art History and Postwar Fiction explores the ways in which novelists responded to the visual arts from the aftermath of the Second World War to the present day If art had long served as a foil to enable novelists to reflect on their craft this book argues that in the postwar period novelists turned to the visual arts to develop new ways of conceptualizing the relationship between literature and history The sense that the novel was becalmed in the end of history was pervasive in the postwar decades In seeming to bring modernism to a climax whilst repeating its foundational gestures visual art also raised questions about the relationship between continuity and change in the development of art In chapters on Samuel Beckett William Gaddis John Berger and W G Sebald and shorter discussions of writers like Doris Lessing Kathy Acker and Teju Cole this book shows that writing about art was often a means of commenting on historical developments of the period the Cold War the New Left the legacy of the Holocaust Furthermore it argues that forms of postwar visual art from abstraction to the readymade offered novelists ways of thinking about the relationship between form and history that went beyond models of reflection or determination By doing so this book also argues that attention to interactions between literature and art can provide critics with new ways to think about the relationship between literature and history beyond reductive oppositions between formalism and historicism autonomy and context      Social History of Archaeology Kenneth Hudson,1981-06-18      Bookseller's catalogues Thornton J. and son,1883      Arts, Crafts and Customs of Our Neighbor Republics Emilie Dew Sandsten Lassalle,1943

An examination of the mythological historical and archaeological evidence for lost civilizations throughout the world Explores unexplained mysteries such as the Caucasian mummies of China the pyramids of Caral in Peru and the genetically unique X woman of Siberia Examines evidence of lost ancient civilizations in Asia Europe and the Americas including extensive investigation into Atlantis Shows that Siberia and the Amazon may have been cradles of humanity before Africa Over and over again mainstream views of early history which state that the first civilizations arose around 3500 BCE are plagued by evidence of much older civilizations evidence ranging from artifacts and inexplicable remains to pyramids and ubiquitous myths that clearly speak of great empires prior to the rise of the Sumerian city states and pharaonic Egypt Viewing Atlantis and its many related myths as a metaphor for a long lost global civilization Patrick Chouinard explores the mythological cultural religious and archaeological evidence for many forgotten civilizations in Europe Asia and the Americas He addresses unexplained mysteries from around the world such as Caucasian mummies found in China the pyramids of Caral in Peru the hobbit remains on Flores Island the giant heads of Easter Island the lost legacy of Lemuria the ideology and occult mysticism behind Nazi theory and the genetically unique X woman of Siberia He also examines evidence of ancient alien visits and other supernatural phenomena in the distant past Using recent archaeological findings he shows that Siberia and the Amazon may have been cradles of humanity millennia before Africa Sounding the call to continue searching ancient remote and formerly forbidden regions for lost cultures and genetic root races Chouinard offers a new chronology for the emergence of human life and civilization as well as a new mechanism for how and why societies and species change over time By finding lost peoples and their forgotten worlds we can truly begin to understand the human race and learn from its long history Art and Archaeology, 1925 Sad Planets Dominic Pettman, Eugene Thacker, 2024-03-28 Everything is sad wrote the Ancient poets But is this sadness merely a human experience projected onto the world or is there a gloom attributable to the world itself Could the universe be forever weeping the tears of things In this series of meditations Dominic Pettman and Eugene Thacker explore some of the key negative affects both eternal and emergent associated with climate change environmental destruction and cosmic solitude In so doing they unearth something so obvious that it has gone largely unnoticed the question of how we should feel about climate change Between the information gathered by planetary sensors and the simple act of breathing the air new unsettling moods are produced for which we currently lack an adequate language Should we feel grief over the loss of our planet Or is the strange feeling of witnessing mass extinction an indicator that the planet was never ours to begin with Sad Planets explores this relationship between our all too human melancholia and a more impersonal sorrow nestled in the heart of the cosmic elements Spanning a wide range of topics from the history of cosmology to the existential threat of climate change this book is a reckoning with the limits of human existence and comprehension As Pettman and Thacker observe never before have we known so much about the planet and the cosmos and yet never before have we felt so estranged from that same planet to say nothing of the stars beyond Man's Story Thomas Walter Wallbank, 1951 Lost World of the Golden King Frank L.
