Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women s themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children s literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women s writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Teresa of Avila and the Politics of Sanctity Gillian T. W. Ahlgren, 1998 Teresa of Avila one of history s most beloved mystics wrote during a time of intense ecclesiastical scrutiny of texts The determination of the Counter Reformation Church to dominate religious life and control the content of theological writing significantly influenced Teresa s career as reformer and writer Gillian T W Ahlgren explores the theological and ecclesiastical climate of sixteenth century Spain in this study of the challenges Teresa encountered as a female theologian and mystic As inquisitional censure increased and the authority of women s visions and ecstatic prayer experiences declined Teresa s written self expressions became of necessity less direct Her later writing was heavily encoded and scholars have only recently begun to decipher those protective codes Ahlgren demonstrates how Teresa s rhetorical style and theological message were directly responsive to the climate of suspicion created by the Inquisition and how they thus constituted a challenge to sixteenth century assumptions about women The only female theologian to be published in late sixteenth century Spain Teresa sought to provide a clear defense of mystical experience particularly that of women Ahlgren suggests that the rhetorical strategies Teresa developed to protect women s visionary experiences were subsequently used by Church officials to rewrite aspects of her life and thought transforming her into the model for official Counter Reformation sanctity The Making of a Mystic Francis L. Gross Jr., 1993-07-01 This is a passionate book about a gifted woman It is written from a psychological viewpoint using the developmental point of view of a number of contemporary developmental psychologists both men and women It is a critique of contemporary American shallowness and is an apologia for a feminist ethic and a feminist sense of prayer in a world dominated by competition abstraction and unthinking labor Holy Living Rowan Williams, 2017-09-21 Rowan Williams writes accessibly and for the general reader on belief Christianity and the place of religion today Apart from being a scholar and theologian Rowan Williams has also demonstrated a rare gift for speaking and writing plainly and clearly about essentials of the Christian faith In the chapters of this book he writes with profound perception about the life of holiness to which we are called The range of Williams frame of reference is astonishing he brings poets and theologians to his aid he writes about the Rule of St Benedict the Bible Icons contemplation St Teresa of Avila and even R D Laing He concludes with two chapters on the injunction Know Thyself in a Christian context Throughout Williams points out that holiness is a state of being it is he writes completely undemonstrative and lacking any system of expertise It can never be dissected and analysed

Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow, 2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one's place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment
