Mother, Please Let Me Go H.D. Graham, 2010-01-28 This book is about my exciting and wonderful career in the United States Air Force I listed my various assignment in the order in which they occurred and outlined the major events in my life while at each base Every assignment had a lot of good points and some that wasn t that great but I tried to focus on the exciting things A large portion of the book deals with my assignments in Vietnam and events that still haunt me today The events in the book start when I was a senior in high school trying to talk my Mother into giving me permission to enlist just as soon as I turn 17 years old I also wrote about some of the interesting things while in high school and about my large family I felt that it might be of interest to the reader to know that between all my brothers and I we accumulated over 170 years of military service to our country I ended the book with some events that happened while I was teaching and the jetliner that I observed on 10 Sep 01 practicing for the flight across southern Pennsylvania that crashed on 9 11

Contemporary Irish Documentary Theatre Mary Raftery, Colin Murphy, Jimmy Murphy, Martin Lynch, Domingos Nunez, Grace Dyas, 2020-05-14 Contemporary Irish Documentary Theatre is the first anthology of Irish documentary drama It features five challenging plays by Irish writers and one by an international author interrogating and commenting on crucial events of Irish history and of the diaspora with introductory essays by established academics Together these plays represent the most innovative development in contemporary Irish theatre and illuminate the social and political realities of contemporary Ireland The first two plays of 2010 and 2013 deal with scandals of clerical and institutional abuse and use as source material the Ryan Report of 2009 and the documents from the 2008 Irish Bank Guarantee The next two of 2014 and 2013 concern interpretations of the most iconic

moment of Irish history the Easter Rising The first of these is based on published statements of participants in the event and the second on the lived experiences of those in the contemporary Republic whose founding ideals have not been realized The last two plays of 2015 and 2016 widen the view to the history of the Irish in the diaspora one retelling the history of emigration to England based on published research material and the other tracing Roger Casement's experiences in the Amazon and his subsequent participation in the Easter Rising using extracts from his diaries and other writings The plays included and discussed are No Escape by Mary Raftery Guaranteed by Colin Murphy Of This Brave Time by Jimmy Murphy History by Grace Dyas My English Tongue My Irish Heart by Martin Lynch The Two Deaths of Roger Casement by Domingos Nunez Kate's Mother Ellen Hodgson, 1885 Miracles in the Trash Barbara Hendrix, 2012-09-14 A mother's womb has become the most dangerous place in the world Innocent life is not to be relegated to the trash cans of the world In this musical God wants to bring humanity back into the embrace of his divine love a humanity that has boldly stepped onto the pathway of its annihilation through the catalysts of abortion and homosexuality Truth has the ability to change hearts and minds and God is truth A beautiful unique life is to be cherished and cared for because it is the most precious of gifts from the creative heart of God What if Mary had aborted Jesus the Son of God In this play she does and is punished by God with a life that never ends After Jesus is aborted and has resumed his heavenly state he is torn between the love that he has for his mother and his Father who seeks to have his mother tried in a court of law for the murder of his Son and thus the Church of God This play sets the stage for the unthinkable and unravels the answers to the controversial questions surrounding a woman's decision to abort her miracle a gift from the love and very heart of God Miracles in the Trash portrays abortion from God's perspective and his boundless love for each individual life he has created revealing that life begins in the heart and mind of God and that he knows who we are before we are even conceived Biblical references support that fact If we believe that God is all knowing then it leads to only one conclusion that he knew who we were before our mother even met our father

While Bidding Farewell Natraj Kranthi, 2021-01-21 While bidding farewell is a compilation of 51 poems These poems are an abstract reflection of myriad emotions cutting across the domains of philosophy enlightenment love affection heartbreak innocence relationships responsibility reality universality and celebration of life They are nothing but a culmination and a mere randomly scattered display of formless metaphors More often than not they are translations of these metaphorical happenings into words while still attempting to retain the original purity at the time of their occurrence This book endeavours to convey indelible silence through words embedded into poems capture sublime yet subtle happenings and bring them into material existence The Fall of Stara Ves Alan M. Some 400 000 hip fractures occur every year the vast majority among the elderly all too often these fractures are associated with death or severe disability After her mother s double hip fracture Luisa Margolies immersed herself in identifying and coordinating the services and professionals needed to provide critical care for an elderly person She soon realized that the American medical system is ill prepared to deal with the long term care needs of our graying society The heart of My Mother s Hip is taken up with the author s day to day observations as her mother s condition worsened then improved only to worsen again while her father became increasingly anxious and disoriented As both a devoted daughter and a skilled anthropologist Margolies vividly renders her interactions with physicians nurses hospital workers nursing home administrators the Medicare bureaucracy home care providers and her parents In the Lessons chapter that follows each episode she discusses in a broader context the weighty decisions that adult children must make on their parents behalf and the emotional toll their responsibility takes Here she addresses the complex practical issues that commonly arise in such situations understanding the consequences of hip fracture and its treatment preparing health care proxies and advanced directives enabling elders to remain at home and the heartbreaking dilemma of prolonging life Like many adult children Margolies learned her lessons about eldercare in the midst of crises This book is intended to ease the information gathering and decision making processes for others involved in eldercare Santal Folk Tales: Humorous tales.
