Ian Dougherty,2019-09-12 This is the story of a pioneering folk hero It is a colourful tale of adventure discovery and survival in the remotest areas of New Zealand s Southern Alps William James O Leary was a man of humble origins His lifetime 1865 1947 spanned a period of New Zealand history when the country was searching for homegrown heroes in whose lives the young nation could discover clues to the question of its identity The decades O Leary spent in the unforgiving mountain country of North West Otago and South Westland prospecting for gold and other minerals and making new tracks in unexplored areas was bound to be regarded with envy and admiration by townsfolk The myth making process was assisted when the nickname Arawata Bill stuck but it is the man s astonishing feats of endurance tenacity and charming eccentricity which capture the imagination Add in the mystery of a lost ruby mine a seaboot full of gold sovereigns and the aura of secrecy surrounding the quest for precious metal and you have the stuff of which legends are made Generations of New Zealand schoolchildren are familiar with Denis Glover s poem Arawata Bill yet the subject of that work was only loosely based on William O Leary The man himself in his solitary and self effacing way was both smaller and greater than the legend He emerged as one of those archetypal New Zealanders who helped to define a distinctive nationality In this fully revised and updated biography Ian Dougherty has separated the man from the myth with a warmly human portrait of an ordinary man who lived an extraordinary life American First Editions Merle De Vore Johnson,1932 American first editions; bibliographic check list of the works ... Merle De Vore Johnson,1929
