This just released ground-breaking book DATA MINING: PREDICTING TIPPING POINTS by Dr. Philip Gordon, Ph.D., details three case studies which were selected on the basis of common Tipping Point Attributes. Each involved media contagion and stickiness during their development, and each arrived at a dramatic moment in time which could only be characterized by the phenomenon of Tipping Points. Three recent case studies explore the leading edge technologies of DATA MINING and the theory of TIPPING POINTS. The first case study, the 2008 Presidential Campaign of Barack Obama, was chosen to examine a narrower scope and timeframe for the application of the analysis. In contrast to the second case study, the International Financial Crisis of 2007 2010 which involves a broader data study period to identify trends and more complex issues The third study Climate Change was included as consideration because the data mining research and analysis revealed critical relationships between Media Impact and Global Events As the issue of Climate Change is still evolving Dr Gordon provides a Data Mining and Tipping Point Theory methodology for analyzing and predicting our planets most pressing Global Tipping Points Review Comments The genius of the formulation of DATA MINING PREDICTING TIPPING POINTS is that it takes explicit account of the role of social media and the internet at facilitating bifurcations and promoting dynamical instability In effect we have trimmed a few feet of tail off the kite As a reader I was informed and educated as to the factors which conspire to influence stability instability in complex social systems the book does a good job of making sense of past bifurcations and dynamical instabilities namely political instability our perception of global climate change and international economic crises my compliments on a truly insightful Media Tipping Points Prof Dr med Peter S Geissler A B B S M S M Phil Ph D Yale M A M Eng M S Ph D M S M D M Phil Cantab A truly fascinating book that teaches a whole new way of thinking about major events and how the media can influence them Being a political junkie I was heavily into the media coverage of the 2008 Obama election and the global financial meltdown both via TV and the blogosphere I now find myself looking for the tipping points and stickiness factors as other key events unfold Usually I have trouble reading theoretical books but this one was an easy read and if you want supporting data then the references are there This could become a solid reference for those in the media who truly want to understand what they are reporting Highly recommended and I look forward to Dr Gordon s ongoing analysis of future events Dr Ralph Moorhouse Ph D Political junkie Expert natural polymers for industries The application of Data Mining and Tipping Point Theory to media and global events particularly the financial crisis and climate change is a fascinating one Dr Serge Besanger PhD Expert International Monetary Fund very interesting application of the Tipping Point Theory potential opportunity for predicting other global events i e Egyptian crisis and perhaps even terrorism activities Dr Adam AJLANI PhD Professor Sciences Politic and Political Consultant France TV1

The American Midwest in Film and Literature Adam R. Ochonicky, 2021-12-22 A critical overview of the evolution contestation and fragmentation of the Midwest's symbolic and often contradictory meanings in American culture How do works from film and literature Sister Carrie Native Son Meet Me in St Louis Halloween and A History of Violence for example imagine reify and reproduce Midwestern identity And what are the repercussions of such regional narratives and images circulating in American culture In The American Midwest in Film and Literature Nostalgia Violence and Regionalism Adam R Ochonicky provides a critical overview of the evolution contestation and fragmentation of the Midwest's symbolic and often contradictory meanings Using the frontier writings of Frederick Jackson Turner as a starting point this book establishes a succession of Midwestern filmic and literary texts stretching from the late 19th century through the beginning of the 21st century and argues that the manifold properties of nostalgia have continually transformed popular understandings and ideological uses of the Midwest's place identity Ochonicky identifies three primary modes of nostalgia at play across a set of textual objects the projection of nostalgia onto physical landscapes and into the cultural sphere nostalgic spatiality nostalgia as a cultural force that regulates behaviors identities and appearances nostalgic violence and the progressive potential of nostalgia to generate an acknowledgment and possible rectification of ways in which the flawed past negatively affects the present nostalgic atonement While developing these new conceptions of nostalgia Ochonicky reveals how an under examined area of regional study has received critical attention throughout the histories of American film and literature as well as in related materials and discourses From the closing of the Western frontier to the polarized political and cultural climate of the 21st century this book demonstrates how film and literature have been and continue to be vital forums for illuminating the complex interplay of regionalism and nostalgia Ochonicky presents an important reading of how nostalgia shapes the Midwest in the American imagination as a place of identity and violence Past and present slip in this compelling and well researched approach to the workings of contemporary culture Vera Dika author of Recycled Culture in Contemporary Art and Film The Use of Nostalgia By centering the concept of region Adam Ochonicky provides an insightful and refreshing reading of American popular culture In texts ranging from Richard Wright s Native Son to John Carpenter s Halloween Ochonicky demonstrates the complex terrain of the Midwest in our cultural imaginary and the diverse memories and meanings we project upon it Kendall R Phillips author of A Place of Darkness The Rhetoric of Horror in Early American Cinema Syracuse University
