Europe's new state of welfare Jørgen Goul Andersen,Jochen Clasen,Wim van Oorschot,Knut Halvorsen,2002-11-27 It is often argued that European welfare states with regulated labour markets relatively generous social protection and relatively high wage equality have become counter productive in a globalised and knowledge intensive economy Using in depth comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of employment welfare and citizenship in a number of European countries this book challenges this view It provides an overview of employment and unemployment in Europe at the beginning of the 21st century a comprehensive critique of the idea of globalisation as a challenge to European welfare states detailed country chapters with new and previously inaccessible information about employment and unemployment policies written by national experts Europe s new state of welfare is essential reading for students and teachers of social policy welfare studies politics and economics The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983

Oil and Development in Ghana Nathan Andrews,Pius Siakwah,2020-11-09 This book gives a comprehensive overview of Ghana s hydrocarbon economy using actor network and assemblage theories to contest the methodological nationalism of mainstream accounts of the resource curse in resource rich countries Drawing upon recent field research focused on Ghana s oil and gas sector and utilizing the theoretical framework of actor network theory the authors contend that there is an assemblage of political economic social and environmental networks processes actions actors and structures of power that coalesce to determine the extent to which the country s hydrocarbon resources could be regarded as a curse or blessing This framing facilitates a better understanding of the variety and duality of local and global forces and power structures at play in Ghana s growing hydrocarbon industry Giving a nuanced and multi perspectival analysis of the factors that underlie oil engendered development in Ghana this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African political economy development and the politics of resource extraction News of Norway,1976

The Food Industries of Europe in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Alain Drouard,2016-03-16 The industrialization of food preservation and processing has been a dramatic development across Europe during modern times This book sets out its story from the beginning of the nineteenth century when preservation of food from one harvest to another was essential to prevent hunger and even famine Population growth and urbanization depended upon a break out from the biological ancien regime in which hunger was an ever present threat The application of mass production techniques by the food industries was essential to the modernization of Europe From the mid nineteenth century the development of food industries followed a marked regional pattern After an initial growth in north west Europe the spread towards south east Europe was slowed by social cultural and political constraints This was notable in the post Second World War era The picture of change in this volume is presented by case studies of countries ranging from the United Kingdom in the west to Romania in the east All illustrate the role of food industries in creating new products that expanded the traditional cereal based diet of pre industrial Europe Industrially preserved and processed foods provided new flavours and appetizing novelties which led to brand names recognized by consumers everywhere Product marketing and advertising became fundamental to modern food retailing so that Europe s largest food producers Danone Nestl and Unilever are numbered amongst the world s biggest companies
