Crisler, 2023-05-04 In A Synoptic Christology of Lament The Lord Who Answered and the Lord Who Cried Channing Crisler explores an oft underappreciated description of Jesus in which the Synoptic writers portray him as both answering cries of distress and uttering them himself Matthew Mark and Luke take up the quintessential language of suffering from Israel s Scriptures namely lament Their engagement with lament overlaps and diverges from one another based upon their specific biographical aims What emerges from this engagement is a diverse biographical portrait in which Jesus both responds to the cries of the afflicted as Israel s God did and shares in their cries as righteous sufferers from Israel s past did The explanatory climax of this phenomenon arises in the respective passion narratives where Jesus s ability to answer and utter lament finally converge in the same literary setting The implications of this dynamic are far reaching as it provides yet another consideration for ongoing research on early Christology The lament language embedded in the Synoptic Gospels and reflected in subsequent early Christian writings points to a belief among some Christ followers that Jesus answered their cries and participated in them Christian Science Sentinel , 1900 The Hymn Lover William Garrett Horder, 1889

MacCunn, 2016-01-01 Britain long revered for its choral music and partsongs had largely neglected art songs since the Elizabethan era. The middle of the nineteenth century witnessed efforts to revive the genre particularly in the works of Sir C Hubert Parry and Sir Charles Villiers Stanford. The following generation including the Scottish composer Hamish MacCunn 1868-1916 built on the foundations laid by Parry and Stanford and served as the bridge to the vocal music of Ralph Vaughan Williams, Sir Edward Elgar, Ivor Gurney, John Ireland and ultimately Benjamin Britten. Though best known for his Scottish influenced compositions, MacCunn composed over 100 songs that free from national constraints are some of the most refined and sophisticated examples of his music. Almost no modern editions of MacCunn's songs exist though many were published during the composer's lifetime. The current two part edition presents the composer's 102 extant songs. Part 1 contains 53 individual songs; part 2 presents the songs that were first published as sets.

Theology from the Womb of Asia C.S. Song, 2005-07-07 With Theology from the Womb of Asia Song continues to demonstrate that he is one of the most creative and important theologians of our time. He forces us to expand the horizons of our theological vision not only by drawing on the resources of Asian thought and experience but also by insisting that we do theology with passion. Here he offers images, fables, poems, parables and visions woven together with his own compelling prose. The biblical stories with which we thought we were familiar become new and more compelling stories when we revisit them with this able and wise guide. And our whole approach to life and living is transformed by the freshness he breathes into all that he surveys with us. Robert McAfee Brown, Professor Emeritus of Theology and Ethics, Pacific School of Religion. In Theology from the Womb of Asia C.S. Song shows how the story of God's compassion in Jesus and the many heartrending stories and poems of the Asian people are reaching out towards each other. Doing theology in this perspective is not a matter of application of doctrine but of recognition of a relation between the suffering God and suffering humanity which transcends many artificial and alienating distinctions. The book is an appeal to Asian theologians but at the same time a necessary challenge to a Western academic theology and missionary thinking. Bert Hoedemaker, Professor of Missions and Christian Ethics, University of Groningen, the Netherlands. A splendid example of doing theology with Asian resources. A breath of fresh air to liven up traditional theology using original reflections and observations with the backing of close knowledge of traditional theology. A book no theological college can do without. Yeow Choo Lak, The South East Asia Graduate School of Theology, Singapore. C.S. Song is Professor of Theology and Asian Cultures at Pacific School of Religion. His recent publications include The Believing Heart [Songs in the Night ... Prayers That Outwit the Enemy Chuck D. Pierce, Rebecca Wagner Sytsema, 2004-08-10 Although Christians often feel defeated and victimized by Satan and his minions Scripture says that we are more than conquerors through Christ Jesus and that it is possible to live without giving Satan any ground So why don't more Christians experience spiritual victory and power Chuck Pierce says it's because we spend more time licking our wounds than we do studying Satan's sniper strategies so that we can find the shooter The key to overcoming our enemy is to become more shrewd in recognizing his strategies to pray in specific ways that help us to overcome Satan's attacks and to wear the armor described in Ephesians 6 As we learn to pray with power and authority prayers of submission confrontation faith wisdom breakthrough and more we can learn to outwit the enemy of our souls Church Song.
