CSB Harmony of the Gospels Steven L. Cox, Kendell Easley, CSB Bibles by Holman, 2024-06-15 CSB Harmony of the Gospels is a synchronized reading of the Gospels based on the work of John A Broadus and A T Robertson with each Gospel writer's account of events side by side. In addition to the harmonious layout, articles and commentary notes are included to provide deeper understanding of the four Gospels and the harmonized account of the life and teachings of Jesus. CSB Harmony of the Gospels features the highly readable, highly reliable text of the Christian Standard Bible. CSB captures the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity, making it easier to engage with Scripture's life-transforming message and to share it with others.

Soaring With St. John Eugene E. Lemcio, 2013-10-01 Not a reference tool, this unique work is a teaching/learning guide to understanding the Fourth Gospel. The focus is on showing how rather than on telling. Thirty-five Flight Paths followed by leading questions and statements help both faculty and students to see as well as read how the Evangelist plotted his itinerary, adopting, adapting, and arranging the texts both biblical and extra-biblical that constituted his horizon. Both visually and verbally, Lemcio demonstrates how, with the benefit of St. John's eagle eye, one might survey and spy the territory of the text. With this comes the knowledge of the only true God and Jesus whom he had sent, which is eternal life. 17:3

Hebrews, the General Letters, and Revelation Charles B. Puskas, 2016-10-28 Most New Testament NT introductions, because of page limitations and other reasons, tend to minimize their treatment of the last nine books of the Christian Bible from Hebrews to Revelation. The focus in these introductions is often on the four Gospels and the Letters of Paul. As important as these books are, one should not neglect, with only a brief survey, the treatment of Hebrews, the General Letters, and the book of Revelation. The title given later to the collection Catholic Epistles or General Letters is a reminder of its general appeal to the whole church, despite its slow canonical recognition and authorship issues. Nevertheless, these writings from Hebrews to Revelation continue to capture our attention and ignite our imagination. My purpose for this book is to supplement my NT introduction and others like it with a focus on specific questions about each book from Hebrews to Revelation: When and why was each book written? By whom and to whom was each book written? What are some special features of each book? How soon or late was each book included in the NT collection? Answers to many of these questions are tentative. The assured results of scholarship are in continual need of reevaluation. Since the 1980s, a host of diverse studies have emerged, and I have endeavored to include them when they are relevant to the discussion.

The Conceptual Worlds of the Fourth Gospel Charles B. Puskas, C. Michael Robbins, 2021-01-08 Over and under and through John's story of Jesus are unforgettable ideas and concepts, profoundly simple and simply profound for the author's own audience and beyond. These ideas did not originate in a vacuum; they have recurred and been repeated before and after the writing of the Fourth Gospel. For this reason, we will examine the meaning of its words and themes in the context of its Jewish Greco-Roman milieu. Much of our intertextual understanding will be derived from alleged parallels that involve comparisons of similar vocabulary and phrases as well as parallel concepts and images from the Old Testament, the Dead Sea Scrolls, Philo, and other relevant writings Such parallels will help to determine the meaning of a word or expression the translation of a particular language determining any direct influences upon the Fourth Gospel parallel traditions or the influence of its ideas as a creative and inspiring work of later antiquity The Way of the Lord: Plotting St. Luke's Itinerary Eugene E. Lemcio,2020-03-23 This unique work is not a reference tool but a teaching learning guide to studying the Gospel According to St Luke The focus is on showing how rather than on telling what Tables followed by leading questions and statements help both faculty and students to see how the evangelist adopted and adapted his sacred texts as well as Jewish and Greco Roman resources in light of his convictions about and experience of Jesus Noticing the dominance of words themes and patterns leads one to discover the primary concerns of the author and his readers Observing how the Third Evangelist internally arranged his materials provides a clue as to the kind of work it is and how it was meant to function Travels with St. Mark: GPS for the Journey Eugene E. Lemcio,2012-09-25 Not a reference tool this unique work is a teaching learning guide to studying the earliest Gospel The focus is on showing how rather than on telling what Maps followed by leading questions and statements help both faculty and students to see how the Evangelist adopted and adapted his sacred texts as well as Jewish and Greco Roman resources in light of his convictions about and experience of Jesus Noticing the dominance of words and themes leads one to discover the primary concerns of the Author and his readers Observing how St Mark internally arranged his materials provides a clue as to the kind of work it is and how it was meant to function New Testament Story David L. Barr,1987 The thesis of this book is that every New Testament writing stands within a story even if it does not tell stories The approach allows readers to view the documents as vital elements in the lives of real persons The book maintains its focus on bringing the writings alive and shows how critical study enhances understanding of their meanings Its prime goal is teaching students to read these writings for themselves bridging the chasms of language history and culture that separate them from us The latest methods of research are utilized in this quest but the focus always remains on the New Testament documents The King Who Teaches: St. Matthew's Royal Curriculum Eugene E. Lemcio,2023-07-12 This unique work is a teaching learning guide to help instructors and students to determine What makes Matthew Matthew Displays followed by leading questions and statements help one to determine how the Evangelist adopted adapted and arranged his sources both sacred and secular in light of his convictions about and experience of Jesus Comparing and contrasting the first Gospel with the other Synoptics and occasionally with John also contributes to identifying his concerns Neither standalone nor comprehensive in its intention method or scope this work of pedagogy is meant to be used and not simply read alongside rather than instead of standard tools such as introductions and commentaries Although no knowledge of biblical languages is presupposed references to Matthew s own use of Greek and the Greek of his Jewish Scriptures also enrich this study A Bibliography of the Finds in the Desert of Judah, 1970-95 Donald Parry,Florentino García Martínez,2018-11-26 This volume contains a bibliography of the research on the Dead Sea Scrolls published during the last 25 years and as such it provides scholars with an indispensable tool for further research Although originally planned as a continuation of B Jongeling's A Classified Bibliography of the Finds of the Desert of Judah 1958 1969 the materials are presented in a different way in order to avoid unnecessary duplications of entries Each bibliographical entry is alphabetically listed in the first part of the book and is provided with an identification number which allows for multiple classifications The second part offers a sophisticated classification of the materials by themes topics and key words but also by manuscript numbers and titles of the compositions as well as by authors

Parry, 1996 This volume contains a bibliography of the research on the Dead Sea Scrolls published during the last 25 years All entries are alphabetically listed provided with an identification number and systematically classified by topics and key words as well as by manuscripts numbers and title of the compositions
