ON THE TRAIL OF GRANT & LEE Frederick Trevor Hill, 2016-08-27 On the Trail of Grant and Lee Frederick Trevor Hill, 2020-02-03 Meanwhile the gathering storm of civil war caused many a resident of the British Isles to seek peace and security across the seas and among those who turned toward America were Mathew Grant and Richard Lee It is not probable that either of these men had ever heard of the other for they came from widely separated parts of the kingdom and were even more effectually divided by the walls of caste There is no positive proof that Mathew Grant whose people probably came from Scotland was a Roundhead but he was a man of humble origin who would naturally have favored the Parliamentary or popular party while Richard Lee whose ancestors had fought at Hastings and in the Crusades is known to have been an ardent Cavalier devoted to the King But whether their opinions on politics differed or agreed it was apparently the conflict between the King and Parliament that drove them from England In any event they arrived in America at almost the same moment Grant reaching Massachusetts in 1630 the year after King Charles dismissed his Parliament and Lee visiting Virginia about this time to prepare for his permanent residence in the Dominion which began when actual hostilities opened in the mother land
