Our Friend Manso Benito Pérez Galdós, 1987 Maximo Manso the narrator gradually realizes that the characters in his story no longer have any use for him The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel Harriet Turner, Adelaida López de Martínez, 2003-09-11 The Cambridge Companion to the Spanish Novel presents the development of the modern Spanish novel from 1600 to the present Drawing on the combined legacies of Don Quijote and the traditions of the picaresque novel these essays focus on the question of invention and experiment on what constitutes the singular features of evolving fictional forms It examines how the novel articulates the relationships between history and fiction high and popular culture art and ideology and gender and society Contributors highlight the role played by historical events and cultural contexts in the elaboration of the Spanish novel which often takes a self conscious stance toward literary tradition Topics covered include the regional novel women writers and film and literature This companionable survey which includes a chronology and guide to further reading conveys a vivid sense of the innovative techniques of the Spanish novel and of the debates surrounding it

Galdos Jo Labanyi, 2014-01-14 Benito Perez Galdos has been described as the greatest Spanish novelist since Cervantes His work constitutes a major contribution to the nineteenth century novel rivalling that of Dickens of Balzac and making him an essential candidate for any course on the fiction of the period Jo Labanyi s study is supported by a wide ranging introduction a section of contemporary comment headnotes to each piece and helpful appendix material The Palgrave

Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities Covering a vast terrain this work will include entries on theorists individual writers individual cities countries cities in relation to the arts film and music urban space pre early and modern cities concepts and movements and definitions amongst others Written by an international team of contributors this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field Beyond Literary Studies Daniel Ferreras Savoye, 2017-04-21 This response to the current crisis in the field of literary studies describes the fundamental flaws of poststructuralist literary criticism which has become a self serving enterprise at the expense of scholarship at large and students in particular Outlining an improved approach that meets the expectations of 21st century students and teachers the author proposes a new definition of the literary object of study which addresses the inconsistencies of the literary canon by including nontraditional narratives such as films comic books and pop songs Fictionality, Factuality, and Reflexivity Across Discourses and Media Erika Fülöp, 2021-06-08 Concerned with the nature of the medium and the borders between fact and fiction reflexivity was a ubiquitous feature of modernist and postmodernist literature and film While in the wake of the post postmodern return to the real cultural criticism has little time for discussions of reflexivity it remains a key topic in narratology as does fictionality The latter is commonly defined opposition to the real and the factual but remains conditioned by historical cultural discursive and medium related factors Reflexivity blurs the boundaries between fact and fiction however by giving fiction a factual edge or by questioning the limits of factuality in non fictional discourses Fictionality factuality and reflexivity thus constitute a complex triangle of concepts yet they are rarely considered together This volume fills this gap by exploring the intricacies of their interactions and interdependence in philosophy literature film and digital media providing insights into a broad range of their manifestations from the ancient times to today from East Asia through Europe to the Americas
