Realism and Allegory in the Early Fiction of Mao Tun Youshi Zhen,1986 Realism and Allegory in the Early Fiction of Mao Tun Youshi Zhen,1986 The Limits of Realism Marston Anderson,2024-06-12 Chinese intellectuals of the early twentieth century were attracted to realism primarily as a tool for social regeneration Realism encouraged writers to adopt the stance of the independent cultural critic and drew into the compass of serious literature the disenfranchised others of Chinese society As historical pressures forced new ideological commitments in the late twenties and thirties however writers grew suspicious both of the individualism implicit in the realist model and of the often superficial nature of the sympathies that their fiction evoked in the middle class Anderson argues that realism must be defined negatively as a discourse of limitations and is of minimal utility in the Chinese search for political and cultural empowerment He shows how hesitations about the realist model affect the fiction of four representative authors Lu Xun Ye Shaojun Mao Dun and Zhang Tianyi He also considers the demise of critical realism in the face of a new collectivist understanding of Chinese reality This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 Mao Dun and Realism Maiheng Shen Dietrich,1995 Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying,2009-12-22 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature The Columbia Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Kirk A. Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism. Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty: peasants suffering from famine, exploited urban laborers, homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness. The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique. Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative, innovating strategies of representing the nation, the social other, time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes. This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era. Comparing Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol, Andreiev, Chekhov, Turgenev and others, the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy. Keru Cai's multi-scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans-Eurasian axis of world literature.

Modern Chinese Literary Thought Kirk A. Denton, 1996. This volume presents a broad range of writings on modern Chinese literature. Of the fifty-five essays included, forty-seven are translated here for the first time, including two essays by Lu Xun. In addition, the editor has provided an extensive general introduction and shorter introductions to the five parts of the book: historical background, a synthesis of current scholarship on modern views of Chinese literature, and an original thesis on the complex formation of Chinese literary modernity. The collection reflects both the mainstream Marxist interpretation of the literary values of modern China and the marginalized views proscribed at one time or another by the leftist canon. It offers a full spectrum of modern Chinese perceptions of fundamental literary issues.
