of the Situationist International
An Annotated Bibliography
1972 - 1992

£7.95/$11.95

"The bibliography appears at the point in a subject's living death when criticism reaches its critical mass." — Simon Ford

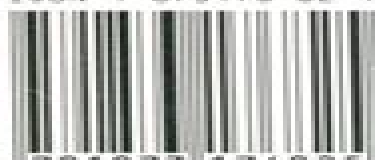

The Situationist International (1957-1972) has had a very productive after-life. This annotated bibliography contains over 600 references that chart its rise to fame from obscurity to celebrity. More than a bibliography it is the most substantial reference book yet produced on the group. It also provides a gateway to the related worlds of underground publishing, anarchism, and the contemporary avant-garde.

The bibliography will be of vital interest to all those researchers, activists, and students fascinated by the S.I. and their aftermath. In addition to listing and describing every significant publication on the S.I., the bibliography is a rich resource of information on related groups such as Gruppe Spur, The Second Situationist International, Cobra, and Lettrisme. There are also two sections solely devoted to documenting the little known British and American 'pro-situ' scenes.

Each reference is annotated with a short description and a relevant extract. With its extensive index the bibliography provides countless new ways of examining and comprehending one of this century's most misunderstood avant-garde groups.

Simon Ford is a curator at the National Art Library, Victoria and Albert Museum, London.

Realization And Suppression Of The Situationist International:

The Realization and Suppression of the Situationist International Simon Ford, 1995 The Realization and Suppression of the Situationist International Simon Ford, 1995 The Situationist International An Annotated Bibliography 1972 1992 The Situationist International 1957 1972 had a very productive afterlife and this annotated bibliography containing over 600 references charts its rise from obscurity to celebrity It also provides a gateway to the related worlds of underground publishing anarchism and the contemporary avant garde and is a rich source of information on related groups such as Gruppe Spur Cobra and Lettrisme The Situationist International in Britain Sam Cooper, 2016-08-25 This book tells for the first time the story of the Situationist International's influence and afterlives in Britain where its radical ideas have been rapturously welcomed and fiercely resisted The Situationist International presented itself as the culmination of the twentieth century avant garde tradition as the true successor of Dada and Surrealism Its grand ambition was not unfounded Though it dissolved in 1972 generations of artists and writers theorists and provocateurs punks and psychogeographers have continued its effort to confront and contest the society of the spectacle This book constructs a long cultural history beginning in the interwar period with the arrival of Surrealism to Britain moving through the countercultures of the 1950s and 1960s and finally surveying the directions in which Situationist theory and practice are being taken today It combines agile historicism with close readings of a vast range of archival and newly excavated materials including newspaper reports underground pamphlets Psychogeographical films and experimental novels It brings to light an overlooked but ferociously productive period of British avant garde practice and demonstrates how this subterranean activity helps us to understand postwar culture late modernism and the complex internationalization of the avant garde As popular and academic interest in the Situationists grows this book offers an important contribution to the international history of the avant garde and Surrealism It will prove a valuable resource for researchers and students of English and Comparative Literature Modernism and the Avant Gardes Twentieth Century and Contemporary History Cultural Studies Art History and Political Aesthetics

Situationist International Anthology, 2024-10-08 The Situationist International Anthology is the most comprehensive and accurately translated collection of situationist writings in English In 1957 a few European avant garde groups came together to form the Situationist International Picking up where the dadaists and surrealists had left off the situationists challenged people's passive conditioning with carefully calculated scandals and the playful tactic of détournement rerouting hijacking Seeking a more extreme social revolution than was dreamed of by most leftists they developed an incisive critique of the global spectacle commodity system and of its Communist pseudo opposition and their new methods of agitation helped trigger the May 1968 revolt in France Since then situationist theories and tactics have continued to inspire radical currents all over the world This volume presents a rich variety of articles leaflets graffiti and internal documents ranging from experiments in psychogeography to lucid analyses of the Watts riot the Vietnam War the Prague Spring the Chinese Cultural Revolution and other crises and upheavals of the sixties For this new edition all the translations have been fine tuned and the bibliography has been updated to include comments on dozens of newer books by and about the situationists Guy Debord, the Situationist International, and the Revolutionary Spirit James Trier, 2019-07-15 Winner of the 2020 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award Guy Debord the Situationist International and the Revolutionary Spirit presents a history of the two avant garde groups that French filmmaker and subversive strategist Guy Debord founded and led the Lettrist International 1952 1957 and the Situationist International 1957 1972 Debord is popularly known for his classic book The Society of the Spectacle 1967 but his masterwork is the Situationist International SI which he fashioned into an international revolutionary avant garde group that orchestrated student protests at the University of Strasbourg in 1966 contributed to student unrest at the University of Nanterre in 1967 1968 and played an important role in the occupations movement that brought French society to a standstill in May of 1968 The book begins with a brief history of the Lettrist International that explores the group's conceptualization and practice of the critical anti art practice of déplacement as well as the subversive spatial practices of the dérive psychogeography and unitary urbanism These practices which became central to the Situationist International anticipated many contemporary cultural practices including culture jamming critical media literacy and critical public pedagogy This book follows up the edited book Déplacement as Pedagogical Praxis Sense Publishers 2014 and together they offer readers particularly those in the field of Education an introduction to the history concepts and critical practices of a group whose revolutionary spirit permeates contemporary culture as can be seen in the political actions of Pussy Riot in Russia the yellow vest protesters in France the BlackLivesMatter movement and the striking teachers and student protesters on campuses throughout the U S See inside the book 50 Years of Recuperation of the Situationist International McKenzie Wark, 2008-07-04 In this work the author suggests what is still vital in the Situationist legacy as well as how modern provocateurs have picked up the thread of those who dared to negate their contemporary world as a whole and imagine it anew A History of Experimental Film and Video A.L. Rees, 2019-07-25 Avant garde film is almost indefinable It is in a constant state of change and redefinition In his highly acclaimed history of experimental film A L Rees tracks the movement of the film avant garde between the cinema and modern art with its postmodern coda But he also reconstitutes the film avant garde as an independent form of art practice with its own internal logic and aesthetic discourse In this revised and updated edition Rees introduces experimental film and video to new readers interested in the wider cinema as well as offering a guide to enthusiasts of avant garde film and new media arts Ranging from C zanne and Dada via Cocteau Brakhage and Le Grice to the new wave of British film and video artists from the 1990s to the present day this expansive study situates avant garde film between the cinema and the gallery with many links to sonic as well as visual arts The new edition includes a review of current scholarship in avant garde film history and includes updated reading and viewing lists It also features a new introduction and concluding chapter which assess the rise of video projection in the gallery since the millennium and describe new work by the latest generation of experimental film makers The new edition is richly illustrated with images of the art works discussed Film and the Anarchist Imagination Richard Porton, 2020-10-26

Hailed since its initial release Film and the Anarchist Imagination offers the authoritative account of films featuring anarchist characters and motifs Richard Porton delves into the many ways filmmakers have portrayed anarchism's long traditions of labor agitation and revolutionary struggle While acknowledging cinema's predilection for ludicrous anarchist stereotypes he focuses on films that wittingly or otherwise reflect or even promote workplace resistance anarchist pedagogy self emancipation and anti statist insurrection Porton ranges from the silent era to the classics Zéro de Conduite and Love and Anarchy to contemporary films like The Nothing Factory while engaging the works of Jean Vigo Jean Luc Godard Lina Wertmüller Yvonne Rainer Ken Loach and others For this updated second edition Porton reflects on several new topics including the negative portrayals of anarchism over the past twenty years and the contemporary embrace of post anarchism The Situationist City Simon Sadler, 1999-08-18 Simon Sadler searches for the Situationist City among the detritus of tracts manifestos and works of art that the Situationist International left behind From 1957 to 1972 the artistic and political movement known as the Situationist International SI worked aggressively to subvert the conservative ideology of the Western world The movement's broadside attack on establishment institutions and values left its mark upon the libertarian left the counterculture the revolutionary events of 1968 and more recent phenomena from punk to postmodernism But over time it tended to obscure Situationism's own founding principles In this book Simon Sadler investigates the artistic architectural and cultural theories that were once the foundations of Situationist thought particularly as they applied to the form of the modern city According to the Situationists the benign professionalism of architecture and design had led to a sterilization of the world that threatened to wipe out any sense of spontaneity or playfulness The Situationists hankered after the pioneer spirit of the modernist period when new ideas such as those of Marx Freud and Nietzsche still felt fresh and vital By the late fifties movements such as British and American Pop Art and French Nouveau Réalisme had become intensely interested in everyday life space and mass culture The SI aimed to convert this interest into a revolution at the level of the city itself Their principle for the reorganization of cities was simple and seductive let the citizens themselves decide what spaces and architecture they want to live in and how they wish to live in them This would instantly undermine the powers of state bureaucracy capital and imperialism thereby revolutionizing people's everyday lives Simon Sadler searches for the Situationist City among the detritus of tracts manifestos and works of art that the SI left behind The book is divided into three parts The first The Naked City outlines the Situationist critique of the urban environment as it then existed The second Formulary for a New Urbanism examines Situationist principles for the city and for city living The third A New Babylon describes actual designs proposed for a Situationist City Avant-garde Performance & the Limits of Criticism Mike Sell, 2008 Explores the dynamic interactions of performance politics and literary criticism in three U S countercultures in the 1950s and 60s
