Realizing Community Concepts Social Relationships And Sentiments:

Realizing Community Vered Amit, 2003-12-16 Contributes various new analyses and approaches to the issue of community such as destabilization in the global context cultural absoluteness separation of community and culture compartmentalized communities

Cocoon Communities Fred Dervin, Mari Korpela, 2013-02-14 Filling a gap in the literature on communities this innovative and critical volume proposes the concept of Cocoon Communities Cocoon communities are highly significant for its members and yet not binding Membership is voluntary and informal Weaving together interdisciplinary perspectives the contributors offer theoretical perspectives and research findings on communities of international students online mourners farmworkers expatriates and Westerners in India The volume will be of great interest to scholars and students in anthropology education social psychology and sociology

Community Resources Johanna Gibson, 2016-12-05 Protection of traditional knowledge and resources is of critical concern not only to the groups involved but also to the international trading community for which these resources are of increasing economic importance This work examines the concept of community intellectual property models and additional sources for protection at international law including environmental and human rights frameworks Intellectual property law is critiqued as an inadequate framework to address the fundamental object of protection for the communities themselves the management of traditional use as well as the biological and cultural sustainability of this use The work sets out an international framework based on the concept of community resources recognizing the unique claims embodied in traditional knowledge incorporating customary law and facilitating community management of resources International in perspective and scope the book will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers in law international relations and cultural studies

Voluntas Militum: Community, Collective Action, and Popular Power in the Armies of the Middle Republic (300-100 BCE) Dominic M. Machado, 2023-06-20 Scholars military men and casual observers alike have devoted significant energy to understanding how the armies of the Roman Middle Republic 300 100 BCE were able to function so effectively examining their organization hierarchy recruitment tactics and ideology in close detail But what about the concerns interests and goals of the soldiers who powered it The present study argues that the military forces of the Middle Republic were not simply cogs in the Roman military machine but rather dynamic and diverse social units that played a key role in shaping an ever changing Mediterranean world Indeed the soldiers in the armies of this period not only developed connections with one another but also formed bonds with non military personnel who traveled with as well as inhabitants of the places where they campaigned The connections soldiers developed while on campaign gave them significant power and agency as a group Throughout the third and second centuries BCE soldiers took collective actions ranging from mutiny to defection to looting to ensure that their economic social and political interests were advanced and protected Recognizing the communities that Roman soldiers formed and the power that they exerted not only reframes our understanding of the Middle Republic and its armies but fundamentally alters how we conceptualize the turbulent years of the Late Republic and the massive social political and military changes that followed

Community Identity and Archaeology Naoise Mac Sweeney, 2011-10-25 Community Identity and Archaeology explores the concept of community identity and its application in archaeology using the modern Turkish sites of Aphrodisias and Beycesultan as case studies to illustrate the formation and dissolution of communities over time The concept of the community is vital to the way we understand human societies both past and present and the last decade has seen widespread interest in communities from both the popular and academic spheres The concept is also central to archaeology where the relationship between sites and communities remains controversial Naoise Mac Sweeney aims to take the debate one step further setting out a comprehensive framework for the archaeological investigation of community identity encompassing theoretical approaches for its conceptualization practical methodologies for its investigation and detailed case studies in Anatolia to test and illustrate its arguments This book contributes to discussions in archaeological theory and material culture studies and is particularly relevant to archaeologists working on different types of cultural identity Community Identity and Archaeology's readership will include undergraduate and graduate students as well as academic specialists In addition the book contains material of direct historical interest for Classics and Near Eastern departments It includes valuable new research relevant for those working on Aegean Mycenaean or Early Greek antiquity as well as specialists in Anatolia including scholars working on the Hittite Phrygian and Lydian empires

Music Making Community Tony Perman, Stefan Fiol, 2024-05-21 Making music offers enormous possibilities and faces significant limitations in its power to generate belonging and advance social justice Tony Perman and Stefan Fiol edit essays focused on the forms of interplay between music making and community making as mutually creative processes Contributors in the first section look at cases where music arrived in settings with little or no sense of community and formed social bonds that lasted beyond its departure In the sections that follow the essayists turn to stable communities that used musical forms to address social needs and both forged new social groups and in some cases splintered established communities By centering the value of difference in productive feedback dynamics of music and community while asserting the need for mutual moral indebtedness they foreground music's potential to transform community for the better Contributors Stephen Blum Joanna Bosse Sylvia Bruinders Donna A Buchanan Rick DeJa Veit Erlmann Stefan Fiol Eduardo Herrera David A McDonald Tony Perman Thomas Solomon and Ioannis Tsekouras

Weaving Women's Spheres in Vietnam, 2015-11-30 Weaving Women's Spheres in Vietnam offers an in depth study of the status of women in Vietnamese society through an examination of their roles in the context of family religious and local community life from anthropological historical and sociological perspectives Unlike previous works on gender issues relating to Vietnam which focus on women as passive subjects and are restricted to specific spheres such as family this book through a series of case studies and life stories not only examines the suppressive gender structure of the Vietnamese family but also demonstrates Vietnamese women's agency in appropriating that structure and creating alternative spheres for women which they have interwoven in between the dominant realms of public and private spheres in the areas of family religious practice community organizations and politics including their participation in the re construction of national identity Accordingly this volume is expected to become an important new benchmark relating to gender issues in Asian societies especially in the context of so called transitional societies such as China and Vietnam Contributors include Kirsten W Endres Ito Mariko Ito Miho Kato Atsufumi Hy V Luong Miyazawa Chihiro Thien Huong T Ninh Tran Thi Minh Thi Performance and Community ,2013-12-19 Performance practice in community settings is an established part of the cultural landscape However this practice is frequently viewed as functional an intervention that seeks to solve educate or heal Performance and Community presents an alternative vision focussing instead on the aesthetic and political ambitions of artists organisations and cultural producers committed to this area Through case studies this edited collection gives unprecedented access to some of the leading organisations in the field examining their creative processes and placing them in their historical context In parallel a series of interviews with individual artists explores their approaches and how they are re shaped by the communities that they encounter Case studies include the Grassmarket Project the Lawnmowers Independent Theatre Company London Bubble Magic Me and the partnership between the artist Mark Storor and producer Anna Ledgard while interviews in this collection include Mojisola Adebayo Bobby Baker Sue Emmas Tony Fegan Paul Heritage Rosemary Lee and Lois Weaver An invaluable resource for students of applied social community and contemporary theatre practices Performance and Community provides vivid evidence of the complex negotiations between artist and community that lie at the heart of this delicate work

Religion and Community in the New Urban America Paul David Numrich,Elfriede Wedam,2015 Religion and Community in the New Urban America examines the interrelated transformations of cities and urban congregations The authors ask how the new metropolis affects local religious communities and what role those communities play in creating the new metropolis Through an in depth study of fifteen Chicago congregations Catholic parishes Protestant churches Jewish synagogues Muslim mosques and a Hindu temple both city and suburban this book describes congregational life and measures congregational influences on urban environments Paul D Numrich and Elfriede Wedam challenge the view held by many urban studies scholars that religion plays a small role if any in shaping postindustrial cities and that religious communities merely adapt to urban structures in a passive fashion Taking into account the spatial distribution of constituents internal traits and external actions each congregation's urban impact is plotted on a continuum of weak to moderate to strong thus providing a nuanced understanding of the significance of religion in the contemporary urban context Presenting a thoughtful analysis that includes maps of each congregation in its social geographic setting the authors offer an insightful look into urban community life today from congregations to the places in which they are embedded Research Handbook on Inequalities in Later Life Catherine Earl,Philip Taylor,2024-06-05 This Research Handbook critically examines the myriad social and economic inequalities faced by those in later life Contributors dissect examples from the Global North and South to support a new approach to studying ageing that moves beyond popular discourses
