Reason For Hope The Systematic Theology Of Wolfhart Pannenberg:

Reason for Hope Stanley James Grenz, 1990 First associated in the 1960s with the theology of hope German scholar Wolfhart Pannenberg has since become a major interdisciplinary thinker and a highly respected voice in the theological community In Reason for Hope Stanley Grenz a former student of Pannenberg and a noted theologian himself provides a valuable complete exposition of Pannenberg's Systematic Theology The book examines Pannenberg's dogmatics in the context of his other works particularly those in English while also providing an up to date overview of the ongoing debate over his writings BOOK JACKET

Hope for the Oppressor Patrick Oden, 2019-07-26 The liberating work of God calls the oppressed out of oppression and the oppressor out of oppressing The challenge in seeking a thorough liberation of oppressors is to help them understand their need for freedom and how to seek this freedom in their own contexts Patrick Oden provides a holistic biblical historical and theological analysis that diagnoses the underlying motivations and inclinations that lead to oppression Part one addresses the context of oppression in which most participants in oppression do not actively seek to harm others but are caught up in systems that tend toward the diminishment of others Part two examines the biblical and early Christian response to oppression discovering a thread that avoids condemning participation in society generally while also cautioning the people of God about being co-opted by society Part three discusses how oppressors can withdraw from oppression through a constructive analysis of four contemporary theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg Jürgen Moltmann Sarah Coakley and Jean Vanier each of whom contributes to a widening vision of liberated and liberating life in which the once oppressed and former oppressor can find peace together in community

Beyond Foundationalism Stanley James Grenz, John R. Franke, 2001-01-01 Grenz and Franke provide a methodological approach for doing theology in the postmodern world They call for a theological method that moves beyond the Enlightenment way of ordering and understanding information foundationalism They propose a theological method that takes seriously the Spirit tradition and contemporary culture while stressing trinitarian structure community and eschatology

The Trinitarian Theology of Stanley J. Grenz Jason S. Sexton, 2013-09-12 Exploring one of the most controversial figures in recent evangelical theology this book thoroughly examines core features of Stanley J Grenz's Trinitarian vision

Hope and Otherness: Christian Eschatology and Interreligious Hospitality Jakob W. Wirén, 2017-11-01 In Hope and Otherness Jakob Wirén analyses the place and role of the religious Other in contemporary eschatology In connection with this theme he examines and compares different levels of inclusion and exclusion in Christian Muslim and Jewish eschatologies He argues that a distinction should be made in approaches to this issue between soteriological openness and eschatological openness By going beyond Christian theology and also looking to Muslim and Jewish sources and by combining the question of the religious Other with eschatology Wirén explores ways of articulating Christian eschatology in light of religious otherness and provides a new and vital slant to the threefold paradigm of exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism that has been prevalent in the theology of religions Jakob Wirén's study pushes forward the frontiers of three disciplines all at the same time theology of religions comparative religions and eschatology This is a challenging and important book Gavin D Costa University of Bristol Professor of Catholic Theology 2017 This book explores of the status of religious others in Christian eschatology and of eschatology itself as a privileged place for reflecting on religious otherness Wiren mines not only Christian but also Jewish and Muslim sources to develop an inclusive eschatology Hope and Otherness thus represents an important contribution to both theology of religions and comparative theology Catherine Cornille Boston College Professor of Comparative Theology 2017 The Doctrine of God Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2017-05-16 In recent years the doctrine of God has once again become a central focus of theological discussion and debate In this ecumenical international and contextual introduction internationally respected scholar Veli Matti Kärkkäinen offers a global survey of understandings of God in Scripture Christian history and contemporary theology This new edition incorporates developments in theological research over the past decade and has been substantially updated throughout

Who's Who in Christianity Lavinia Cohn-Sherbok,2003-09-02 Who's Who in Christianity is an invaluable reference guide to the leading men and women who have influenced the course of Christian history including the founding fathers saints popes monarchs philanthropists theologians missionaries and heretics The book encompasses both Eastern and Western churches and the lives and opinions of personalities who have shaped the past twenty Christian centuries from Jesus of Galilee to Pope John Paul II and from Paul of Tarsus to Mother Teresa Natural and Cosmic Theodicy Jongseock James Shin,2022-10-21 This book presents a third way to envision the Creatorship of the Triune God who is both compassionate and eschatologically redemptive in providential presence rather than biasedly gravitating toward the openness of a self limiting God or God's all determining sovereignty Not only is God in with and under creation God's kenotic presence invites creatures to participate in the self giving love of God through both general and special divine action in a top down through bottom up mode Creatio continua is God's own journey of fulfilling the eschatological promise for creation This redemptive presence of God in creation is a Trinitarian co protesting against the power of death sin and evil considering the cosmic dimensions of the eschatological hope promised in the resurrection of Jesus The new creation is the ultimate fulfillment of creaturely freedom and contingency divinely granted in creatio ex nihilo In arguing this Shin engages in a comparative and critical study of natural and cosmic theodicy advanced by Catherine Keller Arthur Peacocke Wolfhart Pannenberg and Robert Russell

A Burning House Brandon Washington,2023-05-16 Despite the civil rights progress he fought for and saw on the horizon in the 1950s and 60s Martin Luther King Jr increasingly concerned by America's moral vision admitted I've come to believe that we are integrating into a burning house In A Burning House Brandon Washington contends that American Evangelicalism is a house ablaze burning in the destructive fires of discrimination and injustice The stain of segregation remains prevalent not only in our national institutions but also in our churches and this has long tarnished the witness of Christianity and hampered our progress toward a Christ like vision of Shalom peace justice and wholeness in the world Common doctrine may unite black and white evangelicals but rifts such as social ethics and cultural influences still separate us Throughout this challenging but reconciliatory book Washington gives a historical and theological appraisal of American evangelicalism to understand how we came to be where we are and what our response should be Instead of calling the movement to become something new he challenges it to live into what it has always been in Christ and strive for deliberate and sacrificial integration the unity of believers of all ethnicities A Burning House is a rallying call to a waning movement whose most public leaders have often turned a blind eye to or even justified the sin of racism a movement whose theology is sometimes compromised by a secular anthropology This is a call to both white and black evangelicals to better understand our past so that we can better embrace the unifying and comprehensive message of the gospel we preach

American Theological Inquiry, Volume Four, Issue One Gannon Murphy, 2011-02-04 American Theological Inquiry ATI reaches thousands of Christian scholars clergy and other interested parties primarily in the U S and U K The journal was formed in 2007 by Gannon Murphy PhD Theology Univ Wales Lampeter Presbyterian Reformed and Stephen Patrick PhD Philosophy Univ Illinois Eastern Orthodox to open up space for Christian scholars who affirm the Ecumenical Creeds to contribute research throughout the broader Christian scholarly community in America and the West The purpose of ATI is to provide an inter tradition forum for scholars who affirm the historic Ecumenical Creeds of Christendom to constructively communicate contemporary theologies developments ideas commentaries and insights pertaining to theology culture and history toward reforming and elevating Western Christianity ATI seeks a critical function as much or more so as a quasi ecumenical one The purpose is not to erase or weaken the distinctives of the various ecclesial traditions but to widen the dialogue and increase inter tradition understanding while mutually affirming Christ s power to transform culture and the importance of strengthening Western Christianity with special reference to Her historic creedal roots Theologians would be theologians and the theologically attentive will want to check out American Theological Inquiry Richard John Neuhaus 1936 2009 First Things
